VIRGINIA DEFEATS CAROLINA 66 TO 0

Tar Heel Warriors are Buried Under an Avalanche of Touchdowns

GOAL CROSSED TEN TIMES

White and Blue Exhibits Pluck, But is Outclassed at Every Point. Tillett Stars for North Carolina Team.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 28.—The Orange and Blue of the University of Virginia trailed the White and Blue of the University of North Carolina in snow-made mud this afternoon to the enormous score of 66 to 0. Capt. Todd, of Virginia, made several sensational runs, one of which was for a touchdown, while a first year man, Mayer excelled his teammates by making five of the 10 touchdowns. It was a fearful slaughter, despite the excellent work of Capt. Tillett at half back for Carolina and the hard work of his men. Carolina was simply outclassed at every point and in the final quarter Virginia apparently scored at will, notwithstanding the plucky defensive work of the Tar Heels. Today's score was the largest ever made by Virginia against Carolina.

Carolina Powerless

Richmond, Va., Nov. 28.—Carolina was overwhelmingly defeated here today by Virginia in the annual gridiron contest by the score of 66 to 0. This is the worst defeat the Carolinians have suffered in a decade. The game was played on a wet, soggy field from which three inches of snow had been cleared only a few hours. Carolina was on the defensive. They were unable to gain a foothold and were powerlesss before the heavy plunges of the Virginia backfield.

Captain Todd was easily the star performer of the day. He was a consistent ground gainer, being credited with four 20-yard runs, one of 40 yards and topped off the whole with a dash of 75 yards through the entire Tar Heel team for a touchdown. He was closely pushed for the first laurels by his running mate, Mayer, a first-year man, who by splendid gains through the line made five of the ten touchdowns.

Captain Tillett, of Carolina, played a great game. The majority of the tackles were made by him. He was well backed up by the balance of the backfield, but the Carolina line failed to hold their opponents at any stage of the game, and were distinctively outclassed.

On end runs Virginia had everything her own way, and executed five complete forward passes for an average of 20 yards.

Carolina failed to make one. On punting, Virginia averaged 40 yards to Carolina's 25. Eight thousand people witnessed the contest.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

General Sessions of Southern Body Open at Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 28.—The general sessions of the Southern Educational Association comprising a membership of approximately 3,000 in which 16 Southern States are represented, opened here tonight. J. N. Powers, State superintendent of education for Mississippi, responded to the welcome addresses. Dr. E. E. Rall, professor of education at the University of Tennessee, spoke on a "False Educational Basis and Some of Its Ills."

"The Bible and Education" was the subject of an address by Dr. William Dinwiddie, president of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, Clarksville, Tenn.

Preceding the opening of the general sessions, a meeting of the Southern Educational Council took place this afternoon, discussion turning upon the education of the negro. A committee was appointed to devise a plan for meeting the issue.

Election of officers by the council was postponed until tomorrow.

TO TAKE COUNSEL WITH W[illegible] BRYAN

Library of Congress

President-Elect Wilson Invites Nebraskan to Confer With Him.

ENJOYING REST IN BERMUDA

Present Trip to Little Archipelago Is No Different From the Former One, He Says—Taft's Toast Pleases Him

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 28.—Woodrow Wilson has written a letter to William J. Bryan, inviting him to a conference after Mr. Wilson's return from Bermuda. The President-elect wishes to consult with Mr. Bryan as one of the leaders of the Democratic party, but he will take counsel with a number of the other Democratic leaders also regarding his future programme.

It is definitely announced however, that Mr. Bryan is not coming to Bermuda, and that he has not been invited to do so.

After the Thanksgiving dinner today, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson went driving and in the evening attended an amateur performance of "Our Mutual Friend." Being President-elect of the United States and being merely Woodrow Wilson, an American citizen in search of rest on a British island, do not differ in the slightest degree. Governor Wilson was recalling today his previous vacations in the Bermudas when as president of Princeton University he sought rest and quiet here.

"It is not a bit different," he said. "Everything is the same as before. Many more people have called to be be sure, but I am having just the kind of vacation I wanted, with plenty of rest and exercise."

Mr. Wilson did not have his family here on previous visits and he was not so prominent a personage, but the people of Bermuda took him at his word when he said he came for rest, pure and simple, and they have not bothered him in the least. In fact, the social diversions have been just enough to prevent his stay here from becoming monotonous.

The Wilsons know some of the people here from previous acquaintance in the United States and the Wilson girls find it as easy to enjoy themselves as if they were at home.

For the most part, however, they have been going about with their father, who is fond of bicycling and walking. The President-elect varies his vacation pleasures with the days as they come. Often he sleeps a long time and occasionally on rainy afternoons takes an additional nap. His correspondence is negligible in amount. His secretaries at home were instructed to send mail of only the most urgent character and to date they haven't sent a single letter.

"Excellent discretion," was the Governor's smiling comment when he told about it. The Governor says he feels greatly improved in health and as distant from the political whirl of the campaign as it closed three years ago instead of three weeks ago. Bermuda has brought back the domestic side of life to the Governor and the best proof of its enjoyment is in a glimpse of the cozy parlors of the Wilson home, where each night in an atmosphere of books and companionship, the family group may be seen.

The absence of newspapers makes the islands a particularly delightful place to the Governor. He admits that when he was thinking of a place from which to escape things political he thought immediately of Bermuda, not only because politicians after being sincerely warned would keep their distance, but because even the daily newspaper does not invade the quaint stillness of the little archipelago. The local papers are tri-weeklies and contain meagre cable dispatches, usually very little about the United States.

The Governor did not know until Tuesday, for instance, the result of the Yale-Harvard football game.

As he is pleased with the absence of information, though when the steamers did bring the newspapers he scanned them.

One thing he read which pleased him was President Taft's toast to him at the Lotus Club dinner in New York. The President, in raising his glass to his successor had characterized him as "an able, distinguished and patriotic gentleman."

"That's fine," remarked Mr. Wilson heartily, and his family who stood about at the moment showed their appreciation. It appears quite likely, that before the inauguration the President-elect and the President will meet in Washington. Governor Wilson will be passing through the capital on his way to and from the jubilee celebration at his birth place, Staunton, Va., on December 28th. If he does not stop at Washington on that occasion he will doubtless be there in February, when he may attend the dinner given by the Gridiron Club at which President Taft is expected to be present.

Music at the Grand.

The orchestra will render a special programme and Mr. Chick will sing by special request "Mother Machree" at the Grand Theatre today.

RITCHIE WINS THE LIGHTWEIGHT BELT

"WILD CAT" FLOORED ONCE

Californian Knocked Champion Down In Final Round. But Lacked Strength for Finishing Punch —Badly Battered Up

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 28.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion pugilist, lost his title to Willie Ritchie today in the 16th round of their fight at Daly City. In that round Wolgast fouled Ritchie twice and Referee James Griffin awarded the fight to Ritchie. Wolgast, however, already was a beaten man. His eyes were glazed, his legs shaky, his whole body tottering.

The end of the fight came after those at the ringside had noticed in the 15th round that Wolgast's strength seemed waning. At the beginning of the 16th the boys faced each other with Ritchie confidently carrying the fight to his opponent. Wolgast looked worried. Ritchie made him wince with a smash to the body and then shot a crushing right squarely to the jaw. Wolgast fell against the ropes and then retreated toward his corner. Ritchie crowded him and as Wolgast raised his head, he right-crossed him and Wolgast fell sprawling.

At the count of four, Wolgast, very groggy, got up and came toward his antagonist. Ritchie, who had crossed to the opposite side of the ring, rushed to meet him and they exchanged blows. Wolgast, though badly dazed, covered so that Ritchie could not send in the finishing smash.

Only 24 seconds remained of the round. Ritchie, near his own corner, made ready for the right-cross again when Wolgast's left struck him low. Hundreds of voices raised the cry of "foul," and Referee Griffin cautioned Wolgast.

In another instant the left glove of Wolgast struck low again. Ritchie tried to fight back, but was plainly in distress. Referee Griffin rushed between the fighters, pushed Wolgast aside and raised Ritchie's hand in token of victory.

Wolgast says he did not intentionally foul Ritchie and that he thinks it is a poor way to win a championship.

"I didn't hear Griffin caution me and I do not believe I struck a foul blow," he said after the fight. "I would be willing to fight him again tomorrow."

Ritchie protested that he was fouled, but said that he was strong and could have finished Wolgast in another round.

The new lightweight champion's real name is Gary Steffen.

A year ago today he made his first big forward stride when he substituted for the stricken Wolgast in Los Angeles and boxed 20 rounds with Freddie Welch. He is 21 years old and of German parentage.

Betting Favored Wolgast.

When time was called today for the first preliminary to the Wolgast-Ritchie fight, a heavy pall of chilling fog hung over the arena, but the amphitheatre was jammed to capacity. There were several women present.

Ringside betting was brisk, with odds fluctuating between 10 to 6 1-2 and 10 to 6. Wolgast was on the long end.

A half hour before the principals were scheduled to enter the ring Ritchie money was much in evidence, the short enders demanding 10 to 6. Manager Nolan, Ritchie's manager, offered Tom Jones, Wolgast's manager, $5,000 against $10,000, but the latter declined.

Ritchie was the first to enter the ring.

Wolgast followed a half minute later. Ritchie was the only one of the two principals that was given a semblance of a reception. No time was lost in introducing the fighters.

Referee Jim Griffin called the men to their corners and the ring was ordered cleared and time called at 2:47 o'clock.

Round One.

Ritchie with the men fighting close, scored several times to the head and face before the champion essayed the offensive. They mixed fiercely in a neutral corner and the Californian scored the first blood as a result of a succession of short-arm blows to the mouth. Wolgast spat blood as he took his seat. It was Ritchie's round.

Round Two.

Wolgast opened the round with a rush. The champion kept well under cover and after deluging Ritchie with several left and rights to the jaw drove two wicked rights to the jaw and left upper cut over the heart. Ritchie broke ground and Wolgast drove two telling lefts to the stomach. The round ended with desperate in-fighting, Ritchie excelling. Wolgast's round by a shade.

Round Three.

Wolgast drove a powerful left to the stomach. His blows lacked direction, which provoked comment. Wolgast drove two wicked rights to the stomach and a right to the mouth, which started the blood. Wolgast almost sent his man through the ropes

DANIEL RANSDELL CROSSES THE BAR

WELL KNOWN PUBLIC FIGURE

Col. Ransdell's Washington Career Began Under President Harrison. Will be Buried at Indianapolis Sunday.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Col. Daniel M. Ransdell, sergeant-at-arms for the United States Senate, former United States marshal for the District of Columbia and an intimate friend of the late President Harrison, died here early today as the result of an operation performed on November 7th.

Col. Ransdell was one of the well known figures of public life. He had been sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate for nearly 12 years, having been elected to the post in January, 1900. As such officer he had practically complete charge of all official Senate affairs, the issuing of subpoenas in Senate inquiries and the conduct of Senate functions. He was 70 years of age and a native of Indianapolis, where he will be buried Sunday.

At the time Col. Ransdell's Washington career began under President Harrison he had been city clerk and city councillor of Indianapolis, a member of several committees and had held many positions of trust in Republican party affairs. In the course of a three years' service in the Union army he lost his right arm before his public career began.

News of the death of the sergeant-at-arms caused a shock in Washington today, following so closely upon the death of Senator Rayner, of Maryland, and of Vice President Sherman. He was operated on the day after election at a local hospital. He at first rallied and was thought to be recovering, but a set-back early this morning culminated in his sudden death.

It is expected that a committee from the Senate will be appointed to accompany the body of Col. Ransdell to Indianapolis for burial. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Mary Cathcart, of Indianapolis, two daughter, and three sons, two of whom are naval officers.

PROBING P. R. R. WRECK

National, State and County Officials Conduct Investigations

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—National, State and county officials, as well as the Pennsylvania Railroad, are conducting investigations as to the cause of the wreck of the Cincinnati Express, which left the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad last night at Glenloch, causing the death of four men and injury to more than half a hundred passengers.

The four bodies which have been identified as Howard L. Baldwin, sleeping car conductor, Flat Bush, N. Y.; Edwin R. Jones, sleeping car conductor, Pittsburg; L. D. Finley, Pittsburg, and James Collins, Pittsburg, were recovered from the debris.

An inquest will be conducted tomorrow. Only four passengers are now regarded as in a critical condition.

Marshal John P. Dohoney, of Harrisburg, who investigated the wreck on behalf of the State Railroad Commission, said tonight that the wreck appeared to have been caused by the sagging of a girder on the bridge, which depressed the track.

OUTLINES

Albert T. Patrick, pardoned by Gov. Dix Wednesday night, was released from Sing Sing prison yesterday.

Washington & Lee won over A. & M. of North Carolina, at Norfolk, Va., yesterday by the score of 16 to 6.

The government will complete its presentation of testimony at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today or tomorrow.

President-elect Wilson has written a letter to William Jennings Bryan, inviting him to a conference after Mr. Wilson's return from Bermuda.

William Ritchie, of San Francisco, defeated Ad Wolgast, holder of the lightweight title at San Francisco yesterday, winning in the 16th round on a foul.

Col. Daniel M. Ransdell, sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate, died in Washington yesterday as the result of an operation performed November 7th.

The University of Virginia defeated the University of North Carolina at Richmond yesterday in their annual football game 66 to 0, the largest score ever made in the contests between the two elevens.

Sir Edward Gray's proposal that the ambassadors of the European powers should hold a conference to bring them into closer contact and avert the disposition to drift in an alignment of the two groups is understood to have the support of Germany, France and Russia. Servian troops yesterday occupied the town of Durazzo, no resistance being offered.

WOULD BRING THE POWERS TOGETHER

Sir Edward Gray's Proposal for Conference Meets With Support

ARMISTICE ABOUT CONCLUDED

Two Meetings of the Envoys Take Place and Pourparlors Progress Satisfactorily—Servians Capture Dibra.

London, Nov. 28.—Sir Edward Grey's proposal that the ambassadors of France, Germany, Russia, Austria-Hungary, Italy and England should assemble in one of the capitals with the view of emphasizing the points arising out of the Balkan war on which the nations are already in agreement, is understood to have the support of Germany, France and Russia.

The idea is to endeavor to avert the disposition to drift into an alignment of the two groups of powers forming the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente, in opposite camps over isolated questions such as caused the tension which existed early this week.

It is anticipated that without attempting to reach a detailed settlement of all problems which will come up for arrangement at the end of the war, the ambassadors will be able to register an agreement in principle in such matters as the future of Albania, the disposition of the islands in the Aegean sea and the opening or closing of the Dardanelles.

For instance, the powers apparently all are ready to recognize Albanian independence and to pledge themselves not to seek territorial acquisitions in the Aegean sea.

Some revision of the standing of the Dardanelles seems bound to follow the changes of the map arising from the war, and there is a disposition to believe that they will be opened on a basis of equality for all nations. Problems like the Austro-Servian difficulty will be left for settlement after peace has been concluded.

The main object of the proposed conference is to bring the powers into closer contact and to have in existence an authoritative body which will be in a position to eliminate causes of friction whenever they arise.

Peace Delegates Meet.

Sofia, Nov. 28.—Two meetings of the peace delegates took place at Baghtche today, and, according to Premier Guechoff, the pouparlors are progressing satisfactorily. In government circles it is believed that unless unforseen difficulties arise, an armistice will be concluded within two days.

Servians Take Dibra.

Belgrade, Nov. 28.—It is officially announced that the Servians have captured the town of Dibra in Albania, 45 miles to the southwest of Prisend.

Servians Occupy Durazzo.

Durazzo, Nov. 28.—The Servian troops occupied the town today. No resistance was offered.

Durazzo is the port on the Adriatic which Servia desires to retain and which Austria is determined Servia will not hold.

Excitement in Vienna.

Vienna, Nov. 28.—Much excitement has been occasioned by the action of the government in arranging for the mobilization of the Austrian army.

The parliamentary leaders met tonight and decided to allow the premier's three bills, dealing with matters connected with the mobilization, to go to committee without the customary first reading.

According to the Neue Frie Presse, the premier in announcing the bills to the procedure committee, told the parliamentary lawyers there was no change in the international situation. The papers regard this as an admission that the situation still is critical.

Another incident commented upon as being of equal importance to that of the recent visit to Berlin of Gen. Schemeua, chief of staff, is the visit of Field Marshal Baron Von Hoetzendorf, inspector general of the Austrian army, to Bucharest, where he arrived yesterday as the guest of King Charles. He bears an autograph letter from the Austrian Emperor and will confer with the Roumanian chief of staff.

At an extraordinary meeting, the municipal council tonight made a demonstration of great loyalty. Amid rousing cheers for the Emperor, the council adopted a manifesto declaring that the "maintenance of peace is worth great sacrifices, but the economic prosperity of nations and the full blessings of industry are only vouchsafed to States which maintain peace not by dishonorable weakness, but forcefully supported by the consciousness of a just cause."

After the meeting thousands of persons formed in procession and singing patriotic hymns, marched to the Deutschmaister monument, where the burgomaster delivered a patriotic address.

Austrian Crisis Now Acute.

London, Nov. 28.—The Servians, ignoring the proclamation of Albanian independence, have occupied the port of Durazzo without resistance. This information comes in a direct dispatch from that town tonight. Thus the con-

WASHINGTON & LEE DOWNS N. C. TECHS

"Generals" Defeat A. & M. on Muddy Field by Score of 16 to 6

TAR HEELS SCORE ON FUMBLE

Contest Devoid of Spectacular Features—Victory Easy for Old Dominion Eleven—How Points Were Made—Line-up

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.—On a field of mud, the football team of Washington & Lee University easily defeated the team from the Agricultural & Mechanical College of Raleigh, N. C., this afternoon. The score was 16 to six.

The game was devoid of any noticeable features beyond the fact that players on both teams were muddy from head to foot. A fumble by Miller, of the Virginians, on the 20 yard line, permitted the Carolinians to score.

But for an unfortunate fumble by Miller, captain of Washington and Lee, it is extremely doubtful if the Tar Heels would have scored at all. Few and far between were the spectacular features. This was due to the muddy condition of the field which prevented any long runs and made the slime-covered ball a difficult thing to handle. In the opening period, after each team had found the other's line impregnable and had exchanged kicks, the Generals forced the Aggies to their 30-yard line, just before Jeffrey had bucked through left tackle for 12 yards. On the next three plays the Tar Heels were unable to score losing five yards for an off-side play. With no alternative, Champion called for a kick. Jeffrey tried to punt, but the Washington and Lee forwards broke through their defense and blocked the boot. Hiatt pounced on the ball and with no obstacle standing between him and the final goal line, almost jogged 20 yards for the first touchdown of the game. Miller kicked the only goal from touchdown of the afternoon. Just before the first quarter ended the slippery ball escaped the outstreched hands of the burly Lexington captain and rolled ten yards back of him. Sykes delivered the ball on the first play to Jeffrey, who slipped around left end for the only touchdown scored by the Aggies. Hurtt missed the try for goal.

RAID LETTER BOXES.

London Suffragettes' Ingenuity Takes on New Form.

London, Nov. 28.—The ingenuity of the militant suffrage party has broken out in a new direction and in a manner likely to cause inconvenience and loss to thousands. It took the form tonight of an organized raid upon the pillar letter boxes throughout the city of London, in the Westend and many of the suburbs and also in several provincial towns, including Birmingham and Nottingham.

When the postmen went on their evening rounds to collect the letters they discovered in the boxes acids and black sticky fluids of various kinds, in some cases inflammable.

As a result of this, the addresses on the letters in a large number of cases were partly or wholly obliterated. Not an arrest had been made up to a late hour tonight, but police have been detailed to watch all the boxes.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Geo. Creel, of Denver, Weds Miss Blanche Lyon Bates.

New York, Nov. 28.—Miss Blanche Lyon Bates, actress, and George Creel, police commissioner of Denver, were married today at Miss Bates' country home in New Castle, a suburb. Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Denver, was an usher.

THANKSGIVING DAY AT CONFERENCE

Especially Strong Sermon by Bishop Collins Denny During Morning

AT GREENVILLE NEXT YEAR

Jarvis Memorial Church Will Probably be Successful—Proceedings at Fayetteville Yesterday Very Interesting.

(By Mamie Bays.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 28.—The principal feature of the second day of the session of the North Carolina Conference here was the Thanksgiving sermon of Bishop Collins Denny, which he delivered at the conclusion of the business session. The conference suspended business for the day at 11:30 o'clock in order to hear this sermon, which Bishop Denny preached by special request of the body.

The text which the Bishop used was Psalms 103 1-2, "Bless the Lord, O, my soul and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O, my soul and forget not all His benefits." Throughout Southern Methodism and the territory of other churches as well, Bishop Denny is recognized as a man of marked executive ability, as a scholar, than whom his church has no greater and as a preacher who possesses the gift of setting forth his theme in a manner that is the result of careful study and experimental realization of the truth presented; and possesses to a degree not attained by the majority of preachers of conveying clearly to others the full conception of the truth presented. It is safe to say that in no realm is Bishop Denny more at home and more highly recognized than in his pulpit minstrations and as preacher he ranks even higher than as executive and scholar. His sermons bear the stamp of the most scholarly research and at the same time they are characterized by that simplicity of expression and medium of conveyance to the minds and hearts of his hearers which is always the stronghold of the really great preacher.

The points of special emphasis in the sermon of Bishop Denny today were the importance of the recognition and the giving of thanks to God on account of His goodness; and the necessity for the cultivation of the spirit of thanksgiving as well as that of petition as an important factor in the development of the spiritual nature of mankind.

Rev. J. N. Cole led the prayer at the close of the sermon and Bishop Denny pronounced the benediction.

Conference Proceedings.

The conference convened at 9:30 o'clock, Bishop Denny in the chair. Rev. A. P. Tyer, of Oxford, conducted the opening devotional exercises. Minutes of Wednesday's session were read and approved. Bishop Denny announced the reception of several communications from general interests of the church and these were referred to the proper boards and committees without reading.

Bishop Denny resumed the call of Question 22: "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" Names of preachers who sustain the superannuate relation were called as follows: M. C. Thomas, J. E. Thompson, A. D. Betts, T. J. Browning, G. D. Langston, T. P. Bonner, T. J. Dailey, W. A. Forbes, J. Y. Old, and W. H. Kirton. Having passed the examination these were continued in the same relation to the conference.

D. C. Geddie, who sustained the superannuate relation during the past year, having passed examination of character, was recommended for active work the coming year.

Question 2 was called: "Who are continued on trial?" Answering this question, the following members of the class of young preachers received on trial in the conference last year, passed examination and were advanced to the class of the second year: Robert G. Lee Edwards, Robert Elijah Pittman, Nathan Bradley Strickland, Rodger Huntley Hasty, James A. Morris and Charles E. Vale.

John W. Frank, a member of this class, having passed the examination of character, but not having passed the committee of examination, was continued in the class of the first year.

Shockley J. Kilpatrick, a member of this class, passed the examination of character, but did not appear before the committee of examination and through his presiding elder, he presented to the conference a request to be discontinued and this was granted. A similar request was presented the conference from Doctrine H. Read, a member of the class of the second year. He passed examination of character, but did not appear before the committee and he was discontinued at his own request. The granting of this request to these two undergraduates answers minute question 3, "Who are discontinued?"

Question 4 was called, "Who are admitted into full connection?" Answering this question the following undergraduates having passed examination of character were advanced to the class of the third year and were recommended for full admission into the conference: Jesse Marvin Ormond; Lewis D. Hayman, John E. Blalock,

Fourth quarter:

Raleigh's ball middle of field. Stell makes five yards around end. Raleigh penalized fifteen yards coaching from side lines. Herring blocks punt, Merriman recovering for Wilmington on Raleigh's 30-yard line.

Hashagen five yards around right end. Hall two yards through line. C. Burnett two yards tackle around. Burnett makes it first down. Hall seven yards around end. C. Burnett no gain on tackle around. Hall goes through line for touch down. Williams kicks goal. Score: Wilmington, 26; Raleigh, 0.

Wilmington kicks to Raleigh at north goal to Stell, who is downed in his tracks by Merriman. Johnson seven yards around left end. Champion makes it first down. Burnett throws Mills for three yards loss. Stell eight yards through line. Johnson makes it first down. Mills on attempted end run fumbles, Burnett recovering ball on Raleigh's 45-yard line, and running for a touch down. Williams falls at goal. Score: Wilmington, 32; Raleigh, 0.

Raleigh kicks to Wilmington at south goal. Ball rolls five yards to Merriman, who is downed in his tracks. Hall four through line. Hashagen makes it first down. Williams four yards through line. Hall goes eight yards for first down. Burnett no gain. Burnett two yards through line. Hall two yards through line. Forward pass Hall to Burnett nets fifteen yards. Hall five yards through line. Hall no gain. Hall two yeards through line. Burnett no gain. Ball goes over.

On attempted punt Mills is downed on Raleigh's 4-yard line. Time up. Score: Wilmington, 32; Raleigh, 0.

HILLTOPPERS CHAMPIONS.

Georgetown Wins Title by Defeating V. P. I. 24 to 3.

Washington, Nov. 28.—By the defeat of Virginia Polytechnic Institute here today by the score of 24 to 3, Georgetown University practically was assured of the football championship of the South Atlantic States.

Conditions were most unfavorable for the game. The field was muddy, following a wet snow early today and a stiff breeze was blowing.

The Virginia boys were able to make a showing against Georgetown only in the first quarter, when they played the local team to a scoreless tie. In the wet field Virginia's light eleven was tied and helpless against the heavy attacks of Georgetown's men. In every period after the first, Georgetown scored and was prevented from counting many other points only by fumbling. Several times the ball was carried down the field to within striking distance of Virginia's goal to be lost on a fumble.

Both teams played the open style football. Attempted forward passes were many, but few were successful. All of the touchdowns, except one resulting from a forward pass, Costello to Bergen, were made as a result of consistent line plunging. The field goals kicked were the result of many attempts on the part of each team.

JIM THORPE BEATS BROWN

Closes Great Football Career With 32 to 0 Victory

Providence, R. I., Nov. 28.—James Thorpe, one of the most versatile Indian athletes ever developed at the government's school at Carlisle, Pa., closed his football career in a blaze of glory on Andrew's field today when the Indians, principally through their leader's individual play, defeated Brown 32 to 0. Thorpe was in nearly every play, both on the offense and defense, made three of five touchdowns and kicked two goals. His only failure of the day was in his endeavors to kick field goals, which were difficult because of the slippery snow-covered field and wet ball.

Brown rushed the ball to within half a yard of the Indians' goal line and Tenney went over, but there was no score because of offside play. Over 15,000 persons sat throughout the storm and cheered both teams.

WINS S. C. CHAMPIONSHIP

University Outclasses Citadel and Easily Wins. 26 to 2

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 28.—By defeating the Citadel today 26 to 2, the University of South Carolina captured the State football championship. The Carolina team played straight football from the start to the finish, seldom resorting to forward pass or open field plays. Although outclassed the Citadel tried many difficult plays and succeeded in making several spectacular forward passes. Howard, for Carolina, played the star game of the day, scoring two touchdowns and making several long gains.

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED.

Taken From Officers and Strung Up. Shot a Deputy.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 28.—Burke Heard, Jim Heard and Silas Jimmerson, three negroes, who seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Edwards, of Bossner parish several weks ago, were taken from three deputies tonight by a mob and lynched near Vanceville. The deputies were transferring the negroes from the Caddo parish jail to Benton.

VANDERBILT DOWNS SEWANEE

Commodores Defeat University of the South's Eleven by Score of 16 to 0—Gillem's Punting Features

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—Vanderbilt defeated Sewanee decisively this afternoon before a crowd estimated at 10,000 persons, 16 to 0. The touchdowns made by Vanderbilt came in the last period. They were made by Quarterback Robins and Fullback Turner after the ball had been rushed consistently from far down in Vanderbilt's territory. In the first period, with the ball on her four-yard line, Sewanee had to punt from behind the line. Stoney's pass to Gillem went wide and before he could recover the ball and run it out he was downed by Enoch Brown. This scored two points, a safety.

Tolleys, Sewanee's quarterback, played a wonderful game both on the offense and defense. His running from position was the best seen in the South this year, while his blocking, generalship and all-round high-grade work was spectacular. For Vanderbilt, Captain Hardage performed with marvelous skill. He was very weak on his left ankle, but stuck it out through the entire game and proved to be the most consistent ground gainer on either team. It was due in a large measure to his gains that Vanderbilt made her two touchdowns.

After the two teams had fought valiantly for three periods Shea replaced Collins at halfback for Vanderbilt. This proved to be the turning point of the game. He made good gains whenever called on and put life into the backfield, which put the Vanderbilt men in shape to go through the Sewanee defense.

Gillem, of Sewanee, averaged 45 yards on his punts, which in actual distance is 55 yards. On one occasion he punted 58 yards beyond the line of scrimmage. The defensive work of McClanahan, for Sewanee, and E. Brown, for Vanderbilt, were features.

DAVIDSON 13; W. F. C. 7

Lighter Eleven Triumphs Over Heavy Baptist Eleven

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 28.—Davidson outwitted Wake Forest here this afternoon 13 to 7, against the superior weight of the latter squad and against stellar plunges on the part of both Captain Utley and Fullback Riddick. The feature playing for Davidson was done by Captain Graham, both in the direction and the executing of plays himself. He made a spectacular interception of a forward pass and ran for a touchdown a distance of 80 yards. The tackling of Richardson, left end for Davidson, was the big factor in the defense of his team. Wake Forest fumbled often, Davidson's agility in recovering keeping that team's miscues from being equally as costly.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 28.—In by far the best game played here this season Davidson defeated Wake Forest 13 to 7. Capt. Graham, of Davidson was the bright star of the game, breaking up a forward pass and carrying the ball 65 yards for a touchdown. The whole Davidson team played good ball, especially Richardson, Booe and Todd, while Utley, Riddick and Moore were the stars for Wake Forest. Wake Forest made their only score in the first four minutes of play, advancing the ball for a touchdown by successive line plunges. After this Wake Forest did not have but two chances to score and lost both of those by fumbling. Davidson scored one touchdown in the first quarter and one in the second, failing to kick goal the first time. A large crowd attended, and both teams were lustily chered by the student bodies of both colleges.

SECOND HONOR FOR GEORGIA.

University Wins Over Auburn by 12 to 6 Score.

Athens, Ga., Nov. 28.—In a fiercely contested battle for second Southern football honors the University of Georgia defeated Auburn here this afternoon by a score of 12 to 6. McWhorter, the star half back of the Georgia team, made a number of spectacular runs for substantial gains. Skirting left end for a 35 yard run through a broken field, he scored the first touchdown of the game in the second period.

Georgia's second and last score came in the same period when McWhorter made a forward pass to Conklin on Auburn's 10-yard line and Conklin crossed the goal for a touchdown.

Auburn was unable to cross the Georgia goal line. The six points netted by the visitors were the result of goals from the field by Major. The first, a drop kick, went over the bar in the third period from the 15-yard line. The second was a goal from placement at the 25-yard line and was executed in the last quarter.

EASY FOR GA. TECHS.

Defeat Clemson 20 to 0 in Annual Gridiron Battle.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 28.—Georgia Techs piled up a 20 to 0 score against Clemson College in their annual football game here today. The visitors were outclassed from the start. Tech was prevented from scoring additional points only by frequent costly fumbles.

Tech scored the initial touchdown in the first period, but failed at the goal. Neither team scored in the second and third periods, although the Clemson goal was threatened several times. Two more touchdowns with goals in the last quarter ended the scoring for the Techs.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Seven men entered the home of Mrs. Jacob Fish shortly before midnight, bound and gagged Mrs. Fish and her 18-year-old son, cut the telephone wires and ransacked the house. They escaped after stealing two horses and carriages from the barn. Mrs. Fish is a sister of State Senator Thomas B. Wilson.

JOE RIVERS DEFEATS MANDOT

Mexican Gets Decision Over Frenchman In 20-Round Bout and Is Man to Meet New Lightweight Champion

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 28.—Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, was defeated today by Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, over whom he had won an easy decision less than three months ago.

It was a clean-cut victory for the Mexican, who showed a remarkable reversal of form, exhibiting more speed and cleverness than he had ever shown. It was nearly dark and the electric lights over the ring had been lighted when Referee Eyton hoisted Rivers' hand in token of victory at the close of the 20th round.

It was a fierce fight throughout.

Los Angeles, Nov. 28.—Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, won the decision over Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, in a 20-round fight here today. Rivers is now the logical man to meet Willie Ritchie, who won the lightweight championship from Ad Wolgast at San Francisco today.

The first round showed that Rivers was not the same boy that fought Mandot on Labor Day. He almost put the Frenchman through the ropes with a right to the jaw. The second was also Rivers' round.

They fought like wild cats in the third round, Mandot doing the most damage. The fourth round was Rivers' by a shade, he having drawn blood from Mandot's mouth.

The fifth round was Rivers' by a good margin. He bored in, landing rights and lefts to the jaw.

In the sixth both fighters kept their distance, Mandot landing the greater number of blows.

In the seventh Rivers missed a swing and fell, but maintained the offensive. It was his round.

Following a tame eighth, the ninth was rough.

The 10th and 11th rounds were fast and even.

Rivers had the 12th, 13th and 14th, all fiercely fought. He had Mandot at the ropes when the 14th round ended.

Mandot recuperated somewhat in the 16th, but remained on the defensive in the 17th. Rivers hammered Mandot in the 18th.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Mingled With Pleasure and Work in Greensboro—Snow Greets the Visitors—Various Departments Meet—Legislation.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving day in Greensboro was spent by the more than 1,000 teachers in various branches of learning in the State and other visitors attendant upon the annual meeting of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly with mingled pleasure and work.

Following the opening of the annual event in the Grand Opera House last night; the welcoming addresses, responses and magnificent address of Dr. Fairchild, of Kansas, and, incidentally the returning to their respective homes near the midnight hour in a snowstorm, the visiting teachers today started early upon their work.

The State Association of Kindergarten Workers assembled at 10 o'clock in the Smith Memorial building of the First Presbyterian church to listen to talks and drink deep at the fountain of knowledge under such instructors as Miss Meta Eloise Beall, State secretary of Southern Kindergarten Workers; Miss Bertha Payne Newell, and Miss Anna E. George, of New York. Two sessions of the kindergartners were held, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The grammar grade teachers met in the annex of the West Market Street Methodist church; the association of superintendents in the High School and the State Association of Academics in the Elks' Temple. The State Association of Music Teachers, meeting jointly with the other teaching bodies in the State, held their meetings in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. The sessions were all interesting and instructive and well attended.

The most interesting feature of the day perhaps was the special Thanksgiving service arranged for all the visitors at the Grand Opera House. The hour was fixed for noon so that all the members of the various associations might have an opportunity to attend. Bishop Strange, of the Eastern Dioceses, was to have preached the Thanksgiving sermon to the many Tar Heel teachers, but he was unable to reach here and last night wired his regrets. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Abernethy, pastor of the Spring Garden Street Methodist church, of Greensboro.

All incoming trains Tuesday night, yesterday morning and afternoon were laden with teachers who were met at the station with a bureau of information for their convenience and committees to direct them to the Dixie Fire Insurance Company building, where Teachers' Assembly headquarters are maintained by the Women's Club.

Postmaster Robert D. Douglas, who is also president of the Chamber of Commerce, delivered the welcoming address yesterday evening with response by State Superintendent Joyner, followed by the annual address delivered by Mr. E. T. Fairfield, State superintendent of public instruction of Kansas, and president of the National Educational Association.

As a preliminary to the annual session of the Teachers' Assembly the association of county superintendents held three sessions yesterday and two today. The important feature was the appointment of a committee composed of T. R. Foust, of Guilford; F. P. Hall, of Gaston, and B. B. Dougherty, of Watauga, to draw up resolutions expressing approval of legislation suggested by Field Secretary W. H. Swift, of the North Carolina Child Labor Committee, against children under 14 years of age working in cotton mills of the State. Mr. Swift, in addressing the convention proposed also that women be included and prohibited from working in mills at night. Superintendent Hall, of Gaston, vigorously opposed this, saying that his county had 62 factories, most of them small, and that two-thirds of them did night work; that such a law would mean 5,000 of the inhabitants would be forced to go back to their mountain homes to a poor and meagre living. He intimated that signatures to petitions against women doing night work came from the larger mills which did not have to work at night and which are "trying to shut out the small mills."

WOODBERRY FOREST SCHOOL.

Wins Scholastic Football Championship of Virginia This Season.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Woodberry Forest, Va., Nov. 28.—With the victory over the old rivals, Episcopal High School of Alexandria, Woodberry Forest won for the second time in as many years, the scholastic championship of Virginia. The season is considered especially successful in that Woodberry's goal line was not crossed, and a total of 222 points were made against nine by her opponents in six games. The results were as follows:

Fishburne M. A., 0; Woodberry, 36.

National Cathedral, 0; Woodberry, 49.

Augusta M. A., 3; Woodberry, 47.

Staunton M. A., 0; Woodberry, 46.

Jefferson School, 3; Woodberry, 31.

Episcopal High School, 3; Woodberry, 13.

Isaac Grainger, of Wilmington, was one of the stars of the team, his work at full and quarter back always being steady. Credit must be given to his head work at quarter back, in getting to scores in the final championship game. Other North Carolina boys on the team were Bob Tanner, of Charlotte, and William Grimes, of Raleigh.

AFFAIRS AT MAXTON

College Students Entertain—Real Estate Active—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 27. — The young ladies of Carolina College gave a delightful entertainment, "Ye Little Old Folks Singing Class," in the graded school auditorium last night and netted about $35 for their library fund.

R. L. McLeod and A. J. McKinnon returned recently from Bladen county where they had been taking their annual deer hunt. They report two as having fallen to the prowess of their guns.

Quite a good bit has been doing in real estate here the past few days, over $25,000 having been paid for some of the town's residence and business lots.

Supt. R. L. Thomason dismissed school today for the usual two days' holiday for Thanksgiving.

Following their usual custom the ministers at their regular weekly meeting last Monday morning decided to hold a union service on the evening of Thanksgiving day. This service will be held in the Methodist church and will be conducted by Rev. W. B. McIlwaine, Jr., co-pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Rev. S. E. Mercer is out of town attending conference now in session at Fayetteville, N. C. It is quite probable that he will be returned here as head of Carolina College and that a new minister will be sent to serve the congregation of St. Paul's Methodist church.

The local Red Cross seal committee sent in an order for 10,000 of the Red Cross stamps. The central office at Charlotte says this is the largest order per capita sent in by any town in the State. They are to be handled at the two drug stores and a committee of school girls will call on all business houses and try to persuade them to use the stamps on all out-going mail until Christmas day.

MARRIED IN SHOW WINDOW

Unique Advertisement of Furniture Store at Washington, N. C.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Nov. 28.—One of the most thoroughly unique wedding ceremonies ever solemnized in this city took place today, when Miss Callie Hanes and Mr. Howard H. Sawyer were married in the East show window of the Jefferson Furniture Co., at their store on Main street at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Warren, of the Northern Methodist church, and it is needless to say that a large crowd was present at the store and on the street to witness the ceremony. Mr. Sawyer is from Hyde county and Miss Hanes is from Lenoir county, and they came here for the express purpose of being married in the show window. The wedding was the result of an advertisement that the Jefferson Furniture Co., published some weeks ago when they offered a handsome suit of furniture to the first couple who would be married in their show window.

FORESTRY CONVENTION.

State Association to Meet in Raleigh in January.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 28.—The third annual convention of the North Carolina Forestry Association will be held in Raleigh on Wednesday, January 15th, 1913. All who are interested in any phase of this subject, either as owners of woodland, or as users of lumber, or as those just interested in the prosperity of the State, are cordially invited to attend. Some of the most prominent foresters and conservationists in this country, it is expected, will be among the speakers, and a very interesting and successful meeting is promised.

Many of the best known business and professional men all over the State are members of this Association, and their coming together to discuss such topis as "Improved Methods of Management for Forest Land," "Perpetuation of Our Eastern Pine Forests," "Protection of Our Forests from Fires," must result in great good to both the present and future welfare of the State.

SNOW AT GREENSBORO

General Throughout Piedmont North Carolina—Golf Postponed

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 28.—The city was enveloped in a thin blanket of snow for Thanksgiving morn, hardly enough for sleighing but enough to cut severely into the plans of numerous hunting parties. The fall began about 11 o'clock last night, the snow being mingled with a misty rain. About midnight the flakes grew larger and came more rapidly, continuing until after 3 o'clock. The fall was fully half an inch this morning though by noon today had begun melting rapidly. Reports received here indicate that the snow was general in this section.

While the snow had the effect of breaking up Thanksgiving festivities in a sense it did, however, do untold good to wheat crops in this section. A long drought had seriously affected the growth and probable yield of the crop and farmers in the city today say the fall last night was worth thousands of dollars to the crop in Guilford and adjoining counties, where wheat shares with tobacco the distinction of being the farmers' money crop.

The Thanksgiving golf tournament of the Greensboro Country Club, was postponed this morning until Saturday on account of the unfavorable condition of the links for play. The event was to have been the first of its kind on the new Country Club links and a large field of entrants had qualified for the contest. These will fight for honors in an 18-hole medal play match Saturday. The winner will be awarded a large silver loving cup, three Thanksgiving victories entitling permanent ownership of the golf trophy of the club.

MERCER 3; FLORIDA 0

Large Crowd Sees Beautiful Football Tie Contest

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 28.—Mercer and Florida battled to a 0 to 0 tie on the local gridiron today before a large crowd of football enthusiasts. Mercer outweighed the Florida eleven, but the latter team was aggressive throughout. When it became apparent that neither side could cross their opponents' goal line, frequent ineffectual attempts at field goals were made by both teams.

SNOW AT NEWBERN.

An Inch Fall in the City of Elms—Telegraph Lines Down.

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 28.—Newbern experienced her first snow of the Winter this morning, the fall being estimated at one inch. Telegraph lines are down, and the city has little communication with the outside world tonight.

Havana, Nov. 28.—The Philadelphia American League baseball team today defeated Havana by a score of 5 to 3.

Make your cut glass sparkle with GOLD DUST

Soap leaves a greasy film on glass, which is hard to remove; the following method of washing will, however, make glass crystal clear:

Take a wooden tub, or pad the metal sink with soiled glass-linen towls, or any soft piece of cotton. Wash the glass in warm suds, made by dissolving a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder in a pan of hot water; use a soft brush to clean surface, then rinse in water of the same temperature.

After the glass has been carefully dried on glass linen, use a camel's hair brush to polish the cut surface.

You can buy a large package of Gold Dust for 5 cents.

DAVID'S.

Thanksgiving

WE HAVE good cause to be thankful this year. Thankful for the amount of business we have done. Thankful for the good will our merchandise has brought.

For, because we have always given the best possible value for the money, ever increasing numbers have come to deal with us, and having once bought, have come back again, because they have found that DAVID'S Merchandise is thoroughly reliable.

Take our Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes, for example. They give better value, dollar for dollar, than any others—which is why we sell them. Each year they have satisfied and pleased more men by their high quality, attractive style and thorough honesty of making.

Whether their price be $18 or $35, never were garments of such high quality offered elsewhere in North Carolina for the same money.

Come in and see us today—we may help you to spend a happier Thanksgiving by helping you to get the most for your money.

Suits, $15 to $35. Overcoats, $15 to $25.

HATS—Best Hats made at $2. Stetson Hats, $3.50.

HABERDASHERY—Your money spent at DAVID'S store brings its fullest return in Gloves, Underwear, Neckwear, Shirts, Waistcoats, and all other Men's Furnishings.

SHOT GUNS RIFLES

The proper way to increase your business is to cut your competitor down with a Kelly Axe, or saw him down with a Simond or Distpn Cross Cut or Hand Saw, or shoot him down with a Winchester Rifle or Self-Loading Shot Gun with Winchester or U. M. C. Ammunition, or burn him up in a Lothe' AirBlast Perfect or Magic Heater or cover him up with Faultless Roofing, the roofing that is made specially for you, or fence him in with Pittsburg Fence which is welded together with that weld that held.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business, without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Mr. Carnegie has made it worthwhile to be an ex-President.

A woman is not a bird because she flies up at the very slightest reference to her age.

We ought all to be thankful all the time that while the McNamaras and McManigals were at large we were not all blown up.

Mayor Grace, of Charleston, went to New York to get married this week. Those haughty Charleston girls will make a man do anything.

Democrats propose to back Wilson in his administration from start to finish. It is up to him to say which of us he wants to do the work to his satisfaction.

A rise in the price of corsets shows that the Corset Trust continues to take advantage of its opportunity to squeeze women for what it can get out of them.

If Mr. Carnegie will invest $1,000,000 in North Carolina land he could make enough from it each year to pay ex-Presidents $50,000 a year instead of $25,000.

If President-elect Wilson would lick a man for taking his picture in Bermuda, what'll he do to newspaper men for going right on printing his pictures during his absence?

The boycott against Turkish cigarettes won't hurt the industry in this country. Over here it means only a change of labels for the North Carolina-made Turkish cigarettes.

The next thing to do now is to advertise your Christmas goods so people can do their Christmas shopping as soon as they can pay for their Thanksgiving turkey and take a new start.

A New York millionaire says he made his wealth by means of champagne and work. He worked while he could and never wasted his time taking the cork out of the champagne bottle.

When the Greeks, Servians and Bulgarians will leave their American homes to go back to the Orient to fight Turkey, it shows that men with patriotism possess one virtue of very high quality.

We were thankful that the Thanksgiving snow disappeared as soon as the sun got at it. We are thankful for the kind of sunshine which imparts 95 per cent of geniality to Wilmington's Winter climate.

A woman in the State of Washington went crazy because Roosevelt was defeated. Our rule always is to let the defeated man go crazy if anybody has to do it. If he doesn't go crazy over his own defeat nobody else should do any great amount of fretting.

Of course, it is not safe to take November as a time to write about the sub-tropical Cape Fear country, but look what it did for that little old snow yesterday. It shows that snow makes a great mistake when it falls in a sub-tropical country and expects to stay long enough to be converted into a snowball.

This year, North Carolina increased her yield of corn from 49,680,000 bushels in 1911 to 51,106,000; oats, from 2,614,000 bushels to 3,794,000 bushels; Irish potatoes, from 1,488,000 bushels to 2,550,000 bushels; hay, from 304,000 tons to 381,000 tons; tobacco, from 99,400,000 pounds to 1,908,500,000 pounds. North Carolina fell short in wheat but made up for it in other crops.

PUBLICITY FOR BIG CITIES.

New York and Brooklyn, with their 5,000,000 people and great hive of industries, do not propose to get left by any other city in the country, whether they are great or small. The great metropolis wants to keep right on growing and adding to its industries and importance as a world centre. Only recently The Star referred to the fact that the Brooklyn borough of New York is giving publicity to its manufacturing-commercial terminals, and we have used it to point to the value of such a utility, whether it is public or private.

Brooklyn is doing something worth while in not only providing terminals to take care of future commerce and ocean travel, but at the some time in utilizing her water front property in connection with water and rail terminals for the purpose of carrying out a great manufacturing scheme. Alongside or back of her piers and docks are great warehouses conecting with an extensive manufacturing district where diversified industries are springing up because of the great transportation advantages to be had. It is a capital idea, something like the $500,000,000 commercial-manufacturing terminals now being constructed at Montreal.

Not to get left, New York proposes to emphasize its advantages as a convention and manufacturing city. The proposition is to organize bureaus to solicit conventions from all portions of the country, to develop local industries and to encourage commerce. The Manufacturers' Record says this movement has been set on foot "on the ground that Southern and Western cities are threatening to make it less a leader." New York already is the greatest manufacturing city in America. It has thousands of diversified industries which produce billions of dollars worth of products. The Record suggests that the New York plan can be followed in other cities, particularly in the South, but it says the convention idea need not be given serious consideration, for the reason that the principal benefit derived from the average convention goes to prominent participants in it, who make their living through such prominence. However, the Record says this of New York's industrial plan, and says:

"But there is matter for serious though as to manufacturing and commerce. For instance, between 1899 and 1900 there was an increase in the capital invested in factories of 85.8 per cent. at Kansas City, against an increase of 24.6 per cent. at Boston; an increase of 90.1 per cent. at Chicago; against one of 59.9 per cent. at New York; an increase of 124.6 per cent. at Cleveland, against one of 54.9 per cent. at Philadelphia, and an increase of 449.8 per cent. at Birmingham, against one of 33.7 per cent. at Pittsburg. The increase in the whole South was 141 per cent. against an increase of 99.8 per cent. in the rest of the country.

"In 1902 the combined exports of New York, Boston and Philadelphia had a value constituting 48.7 per cent. of the total value of the exports of the United States in that year. In 1912 the aggregate at these three ports was 43.4 per cent. of the total. In 1902 the aggregate at Savannah, New Orleans and Galveston was 19.7 per cent. of the total, and in 1912, it was 21.4 per cent. of the total. In the 10 years the value of exports from New York, ranking first in the country in 1912, has increased 66.8 per cent., and the value at Galveston, ranking second, has increased 125.5 per cent., to an amount greater by $90,603,766 than the aggregate value of the exports from all the Pacific ports of the United States. In the meantime, the exports from Boston have decreased in value 31.9 per cent., and at Philadelphia 14 per cent.

"These rates of increase and decrease are indications of the general trend in industry and commerce in the United States which, in the main, can hardly be overcome by artificial devices. As long as the chief lines of transportation were from east to west and the principal sources of the merchandise for export were east of the Mississippi river, if not east of the Alleghenies, and as long as the monufacturing energies of the country were centered in the North and East, compelled to take to manufacturing rather than to agriculture and other lines furnishing the support of manufacturing, so long was it the fortune of Eastern cities on tidewater to dominate both in manufacturing and in commerce. Force of habit makes it difficult for such communities to comprehend fully the effect upon themselves of the radical changes that have occurred in the past 25 years. * * * They have not been sufficiently impressed with the significance of the fact that the South is producing more than 45 per cent. of the merchandise annually exoprted from the whole country and sending nearly 35 per cent. of the total through its ports, and that, with less than one-third the area and with a population 18,000,000 fewer than the population of the whole country in 1880, the South has $700,000,000 more capital invested in manufacturing than the whole country had in that year, is yielding $238,000,000 more from its forests, $834,000,000 more from its farms and about $5,000,000 more from its mines than the whole country did at the earlier period. It is but natural for manufacturing to seek, as it is doing in the South, sites close to the raw material and having the advantage of comparatively short hauls to the seaboard, as far as it is concerned with foreign trade, and as the South is one of the great sections of the country still capable of supporting a much larger productive population than any other section has at present, the relative importance of such cities as Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg must inevitably decrease."

We get here some valuable and astonishing facts from our esteemed contemporary, and it serves to show that the great industrial development in progress in the South is being taken seriously by even the greatest city in America. Pittsburg, Philadelphia, and other large cities are going after industries as eagerly as the smallest city in the South.

ANOTHER NAPOLEON.

About 1872-73, France put the Napoleon dynasty out of business. Napoleon III got into a war with Germany while his empire was a sleeping volcano of Republicanism. Germany won the victory, took back her own province of Alsoce-Lorane and laid a heavy war indemnity upon the French people. When the war closed, the French democracy asserted itself, Napoleon was dethroned and a Republic was established. That Republic endures today after a period of 40 years, and France is one of the most prosperous and powerful of the European nations.

The overthrow of the Emperor Napoleon, third in succession to the great Napoleon Bonaparte, left the Nopoleon princes without the hope of succession in either their own country or any other. However, it remains for 1912 to bring about the destruction of Turkish power in Europe and probably restore a Nopoleon to the throne.

History more interesting than any romance has been enacted while those of this generation have been onlookers Prophecies are being fulfilled and the book of fate sealed while we wait. If the present terrible war between the Balkan kingdoms and the toppling empire of Turkey bring about the restoration of a Napoleon to the throne, it will furnish the world a strange piece of history—stranger than all the imaginings of the greatest explorer into the realms of romance.

Nevertheless, there comes from Paris a cablegram saying that reports are current in Bonapartist circles that Prince Victor Napoleon, cousin of King Victor Emanuel of Italy, will be named as sovereign of the future kingdom of Albania. The present war will bring about the absorption of Albania by one of the allied Balkan kingdoms, or it will bring about the establishment of autonomy for Albania. This means that the province or vassal State of Albania will be freed from Turkish rule and established as another petty kingdom in the Balkans. The interference of the powers and the crowned heads of Europe will bring that about. Jeolousies will prevent Albania's annexation by any of the Balkan kingdoms entitled to it by conquest, and while it will be freed from the Turkish yoke, it will not be left to the people to decide for themselves upon their form of government. That would make the people the sovereigns like we are in North Carolina, but they will have a form of government and a king selected by the powers to rule over them. Sovereignty, therefore, will rest in one man, and not in the people. That is because the one man sovereign idea prevails in Europe and because the inheritance of kingly power is supported by five powerful monarchies of Europe. If the Republic of France had her way, she would leave it to the people of Albania to establish the rule of the people, but there are the British kingdom, the German empire, the Austrian empire, the Russian empire, and the Kingdom of Italy to overrule Democratic France.

The Paris report concerning Albania goes on to say that Italy, with the support of Russia, has secured the candidacy of Prince Napoleon to the Kingdom of Albania, and that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria approves it. It is said, however, that these reports lack confirmation, but owing to the conditions prevailing in Turkey and threatening disturbance of the peace of all Europe, this is one of the most likely results of the downfall of Moslem reign in Europe.

THE CITY SHOULD KNOW ITSELF.

The Star often has urged that we should know our town, if we would realize on its possibilities and make the most of the opportunities which it offers for our own individual success and for the development of the city. A man who does not know the potential factors in the upbuilding of his town would be a poor man to answer an inquiry about his town. If a stranger should ask what makes Wilmington grow, how many could give him a correct answer? What if one should inquire what is the cause of Wilmington's prosperity, and why it is that Wilmington is busy putting up buildings, laying new streets, extending its sewer system, and why the banking business, the commerce of the port, the wholesale business, the retail business, the manufacturing business, and all other interests, are healthy and growing with great satisfaction, who could step to the front and give the information?

Those who do not know their town certainly could not be expected to answer. Those of us who know some of the potentialities back of Wilmington might attempt to give the information, but we will guarantee that in attempting to do so any of us will overlook some of the most powerful factors in the onward march of this city. The Star can name a dozen great influences that are making Wilmington one of the thriftiest cities in the South, but what would be the use? Nobody could remember them, so that offhand they could state what they are. In fact, they may not include quite all the potentialities back of the splendid progress being made by Wilmington.

The fact is, we ought to get these things down pat, and have them at our finger's ends. They ought to be published in a neat little pocket folder and then we would learn our town and be able to answer questions about it and post others about the city. We ought to have a few walking encyclopedias about town, but about the best thing we could do would be to publish a symposium of Wilmington's progress and give the causes for it. There are powerful causes back of Wilmington's growth, and we could fill every page of the Star writing about them, but we are not going to begin to do it right here. However, we are curious to find out from our citizens what is their opinion as to the causes of the steady development of Wilmington. Fifty men might write briefly the main causes and suggest other things for the development of their city. We could thus exploint the advantages of Wilmington.

The Star will open its columns to those who want to give their views of it. There is one thing about it, we won't know what our opportunities are unless we study and know our town, and we won't do what we could be doing if we don't know our city's advantages. Some may be doing all they can with their opportunities, but they might point out some to others. When we know our town, we will have confidence in it, and we can inspire confidence in others. How about it, Mr. Wilmingtonian?

Pastor Russell is catching it from orthodox people because he is insisting that there is no such place as a warm hereafter for sinners. Owing to the fact that it is still a disputed point, people will be on the safe side by going right on trying to be good. Since all people know they have to die, it is better to be good and do good for what it is worth in life, and those who do that will be little concerned in whether the affirmative or the negative has it. It won't do any harm to live here in a manner that certainly affords more satisfaction and happiness on earth, whether there is or is not a bad place in the hereafter. In a dispute of that kind it is better to be on the safe side.

During 1912, the South raised enough cotton to bring as much money as the big crop of 1911, and besides it increased its grain crops in the following proportions: Corn, 1,335,939,000 bushels, compared with 915,281,000 bushels last year; wheat, 98,086,000 bushels, compared with 101,750,000 bushels in 1911; oats, 137,865,000 bushels, compared with 93,936,000 bushels last year; Irish potatoes, 49,199,000 bushels, compared with 26,368,000 bushels in 1911; tobacco, 698,941,000 pounds, compared with 644,110,000 in 1911; hay, 11,926,000 tons, compared with 7,254,000 tons the previous year. The only falling off was in wheat, but the increase has been satisfactory in those crops most necessary to help Southern farmers towards dependence.

CURRENT COMMENT.

And again a Democratic State chairman is asking for about the best job to be had.—Durham Herald.

"We notice that work is soon to begin on the harbor of refuge at Cape Lookout," says the Newbern Sun. "Then you may look out for some development in this end of the State." This development is one in which the whole State is interested, for if this State can establish a rate basing point on the Carolina coast, we may some day see a readjustment of freight rates.—Greensboro News.

Tennessee and Western North Carolina are shipping turkeys to the North by the carload, each carload being worth about $3,000. The turkey shippers will receive several hundred thousand dollars for the birds. Why do not the farmers in this section raise turkeys? A small flock on each farm would cost little and would be a source of considerable income. After turkeys are a few weeks old and are able to begin to forage there need be no further bother or expense until the fattening season approaches. A boy or girl on each farm by a little care and energy could make the value of a bale of cotton from their turkey crop.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A Dougherty county farmer grew sweet potatoes this year for commercial purposes. He planted twenty acres with a yellow yam variety which classes as choice in the market. From the 20 acres he will get at least 5,000 bushels, says the Albany Herald. He has sacked and sold 1,000 bushels, for which he received 65 cents a bushel f.o.b. cars. The larger part of his crop he will bank until the Spring when he is sure of $1 a bushel or more. At the lowest price, here is a net profit per acre of more than three times the same land would have produced in cotton. Sweet potatoes are but little, if any, more trouble to cultivate than cotton and require no more fertilization. They are essentially a South Georgia crop and produce even better on a sandy loam soil than in the red clay soil of Dougherty. The crop never fails and the thing to be wondered at is why more South Georgia farmers do not raise potatoes for market.—Savannah News.

PENN., 7; CORNELL, 2.

Red and Blue Adds Another to Long String of Victories.

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—Pennsylvania added another victory to her long string of successes over the Cornell football team, by winning the Thanksgiving game on Franklin Field today, by the score of 7 to 2. It had been snowing for almost 10 hours before the game began, and the field was soaked from the slush, causing both teams to frequently muff or fumble the slippery ball. This condition of the field was indirectly responsible for all the scoring.

Cornell got her two points in the first period. It had been a punting game all through the period, and the ball was on Pennsylvania's 20-yard line, where Minds attempted to punt. J. Whyte broke through the Pennsylvania line, and blocked the kick. Minds and Whyte raced after the ball, and the Pennsylvanian fell on it one yard from his own goal line, but before he could recover himself he slid in the mud across the goal and Referee Langford declared a safety in favor of Cornell.

Pennsylvania's touchdown came unexpectedly near the end of the second period. Cornell had the ball in midfield as the result of a punt. Bennett, who had gone into the game at right half back for Cornell, replacing Fritz, fumbled, and Captain Mercer, of Pennsylvania, caught the ball. He was 55 yards from Cornell's goal with a clear field and dashing down the field, outrunning Cornell's fleetest men, he made an easy touchdown.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 28.—Carl Morris, the Oklahoma "white hope" aspirant, knocked out Jack McFarland, of New York, in the first round of their scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. The fight lasted less than half a minute, McFarland taking the count after receiving a left hook on the chin.

Cottolene
—better than butter for shortening

Eat butter, but don't waste it. The right place for butter is on your dining table; the wrong place is in your kitchen. Every time you shorten or fry with butter you waste money. Cottolene—the vegetable shortening—will give you equally good results at one-third the cost.

Cottolene makes light, digestible food, which any stomach can digest. Cottolene-made food is rich, but never greasy Neutral in taste, practically without odor, Cottolene is a product of carefully selected cotton oil, refined by our exclusive process.

Use one-third less Cottolene than either butter or lard.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

EARLIEST SNOW IN YEARS

Third Time in Nearly Half a Century That Wilmington Has Had Snowfall in November—Cold Snap General.

To say that the citizens of Wilmington were surprised to see the ground covered with snow when they awoke yesterday morning is expressing it rather mildly, for only twice before in the last 42 years, according to the records of Weather Observer Felger, has this section been visited by the "beautiful" during the month of November.

Then, too, when most Wilmingtonians retired Wednesday night the weather, while giving some indications of a change to the cooler, did not promise sleet and snow by any means. But along toward midnight the change became more noticeable and a cold rain began falling. The rainfall continued until early in the morning and about 5 o'clock changed to sleet, which fell for perhaps 20 minutes. Shortly after the sleet had ceased to fall the snow made its appearance, just about daybreak. From that time on until 9 o'clock the snow fell intermittently, and at times the appearance of the streets was beautiful, the flakes being large and numerous. The ground was pretty well covered by the time most people were astir and for a while the day promised to be Winter-like throughout. But soon after the snow ceased to fall the sun came out, and then it was only a matter of a few hours until the last of the fleecy mantle had disappeared.

Nevertheless, the day remained cold and partly cloudy, though the weather by no means cast a damper on the spirits of the crowds observing holiday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 41 and the minimum 32, while the rain fall for the day was .70. Observer Felger, of the weather bureau stated that approximately one inch of snow fell from daybreak to 9 o'clock.

This is the third time in the last 42 years that snow has fallen here this early in the Winter. In November of 1879 there was a fall of one and one-half inches and in the same month of 1897 a trace of snow fell. The appearance of the snow here this early in the year was a matter of considerable comment on the streets yesterday.

Yesterday's snow was the third that has fallen this year. There was a very heavy snowfall last January, the ground being covered for several days, and again in February another heavy fall came, this also lasting several days.

Wilmington, however, was not the only city visited by the snow. From all over the southwest and even in the extreme Southern States, come reports of freezing weather and heavy snowfalls. Nearly every city in North Carolina reported snow falling Wednesday night.

MR. DUSHAN ACQUIRES INTEREST

Will Have Charge of Business Management of Hodges Studio.

The photographic studio at corner of Front and Princess streets, known for several years as the Vale Studio, and for several years occupied by Mr. Paul Taylor, who is now in Norfolk, Va., where he has the finest studio in the State, will go into the hands of Mr. Chas. Dushan and Mr. E. R. Hodges. Mr. Dushan recently acquired a half interest in this thriving business through the inability of Mr. Hodges to properly attend to the duties of photographer and business manager so that Mr. Dushan will in the future assume the active management of the business while Mr. Hodges will devote his entire attention to the photographic work. Mr. Hodges is acknowledged to be one of the most thoroughly equipped photographers in the city, being capable of producing the highest class of portrait work and with a new and thoroughly modern equipment of all the latest and best paraphernalia this firm can now cater to the most fastidious customers who desire only the best in this line. With Mr. Dushan in control of the business management of this concern a splendid business should be developed as these young men number their friends and acquaintances by the hundreds. Already some of the most prominent people in the city are numbered among the patrons of this studio. The connection of Mr. Dushan with this new business will in no manner interfere with his duties at the Boys' Brigade as his management of the photo shop will require practically none of his time during business hours.

SMALL BLAZE YESTERDAY

Fire In Plant of The North State Candy Company

Fire thought to have started from a gas jet supposed to have been left lighted by an employe of the company, damaged the building of the North State Candy Company. Water and Chesnut streets, to the extent of $50 or more, yesterday about 1:20 o'clock, and the smoke from the blaze probably damaged the stock of goods to some extent.

The alarm came in from box 23 and attracted a large number of holiday observers to the scene. The fire apparatus arrived in a few minutes and the firemen had no trouble in conquering the blaze. Chief Schnibben estimates the damage to the building at not over $50, but no estimate was placed on the damage to the stock of goods by the smoke.

ELKS' MEMORIAL ON SUNDAY

Annual Convening of Lodge of Sorrow in Academy of Music—G. S. Bradshaw, Esq., of Greensboro, to Deliver Address.

The annual memorial service, or as it is more properly known, the annual Lodge of Sorrow, of Wilmington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E., will be held in the Academy of Music, this city, on Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

This is an annual observance of the Elks all over the country, wherever there is established a lodge of the order and the services are always beautiful and impressive, being in honor of those members of the order who have passed away since the foundation of the particular lodge by which the services are held.

The orator for the occasion in Wilmington this year will be G. S. Bradshaw, Esq., of the Greensboro bar, and one of the most gifted young attorneys in Piedmont North Carolina. Exalter Ruler Thomas E. Wallace, will preside over the exercises and the devotional part of the ceremonies will be conducted by Rev. Father C. Dennen, chaplain of Wilmington Lodge.

Capt. C. H. Causey, of Wallace, a member of the Suffolk, Va., lodge, but a regular attendant upon the ceremonies of the local lodge by reason of his residence in this section of the State, will introduce the orator and aside from the address the usual beautiful and impressive ritualistic exercises will take place. There will be an appropriate programme of music, with orchestra and special quartette, while the decorations of the Academy will be by Rehder and will be of the usual elaborate and appropriate order.

While Wilmington draws upon Greensboro for the orator for its Elks Memorial this year, it is in splendid position to reciprocate and will do so with Louis Goodman, Esq., as the orator for the Greensboro lodge. Mr. Goodman is a Past Exalted Ruler of the Wilmington Lodge, a devoted Elk and an orator of splendid ability. He will be heard with much interest for the exercises at Greensboro.

WEEKLY GAMES TONIGHT

Great Basketball Sport in Store at The Boy's Brigade

The regular Friday night basketball games will be played at the Boys' Brigade tonight and some great sport is billed for the evening. There will be three games as usual, the Eagles meeting the Y. M. C. A. Seniors; the Cardinals playing Company A, and the Y. M. C. A. Juniors stacking up against Company B. All the teams are in splendid condition for the fray and all are eager for the games to begin, ready for the sound of the whistle which will set the going in an effort to improve their places by sending their opponents down to defeat or with the hope of retaining the lead they now possess.

The Cardinals are now tie with the Y. M. C. A. Seniors for third place and they will play hard tonight to defeat their rivals and better their position though as Company A is playing such a great game this will be a hard feat to perform and it now looks as though Company A should win if past form counts for anything. The Y. M. C. A. Seniors hope to put it on the Eagles, who are bringing up the tail end in this race. Both of these teams are rather unfortunate in losing by close scores and it cannot be predicted which will win with any degree of certainty, and while if the Seniors play with anything like the form they have exhibited their chances are good, though the Eagles have almost won recently from both the Y. M. C. A. Juniors and Company B, the two strongest teams in the league.

The game which is exciting the greatest interest is that between the Juniors and Company B. No teams in the city arouse so much enthusiasm as these two for lovers of this sport know that when they go together there will be something doing which is always above the average. Their game is filled with fast, clean work in every department, their passing is fast and accurate, their guarding is of the sensational kind, their goal-shooting is such as is seldom seen done by other teams and the spirit they manifest is such as to call forth the praise of all alike so sportsmanlike is it. The uncertainty of the result is another feature of interest as this is ever in doubt until the last blow of the referee's whistle. In their last game the score stood 16 to 16 just before the end of the game when Company B secured a goal which gave them the game by the small margin of two points. The game tonight is expected to be close and the winner cannot be picked with any assurance of certainty, and this feature will make this one of the most interesting games of the season. Another record crowd is expected to be present to root for their favorites and to keep things lively throughout the evening. Seats for about 150 people will be provided and everything is free. Ladies are especially invited to witness the games. The first game will begin at 8:15. Mr. Dushan will referee. The line-up will be as follows:

Eagles—McCartney and Fowler, forwards; Houston, center; Gerdes and Burnett, guards. Y. M. C. A. Seniors—Strauss and LeMoyne, forwards; Filyaw, center; Solomon and Mercer, guards. Company B—Register and Register, forwards; Borneman, center; Branch and Sholar, guards. Y. M. C. A. Juniors—Davis, N., and Shepard, forwards; Farrar, center; Davis and Johnson, guards. Cardinals—Davis, C. W., and Irving, forwards; Huhn, center; Davis, C. C., and King, guards. Company A—Hanson and Gerdes, forwards; Fick, center; Duls and Kure, guards.

QUIET THANKSGIVING DAY

Cold Weather Prevented Golf Tournament—Holiday Was Marked by Little Disorder—Business at Standstill.

Dawning cold and cloudy, with the ground covered with snow, yesterday was a genuine Thanksgiving from every standpoint, not excluding the weather. After having retired the night before with temperatures reminding one more of Indian Summer than of Thanksgiving, Wilmington people were greatly surprised on looking out of their windows yesterday morning to see the fleecy mantle covering the ground. And, while it did not last long, it nevertheless served to add the last touch to the holiday atmosphere that prevailed, and no one lamented because of it.

The weather for the most part did not mar the pleasure of the holiday observers, though it did prevent the Thanksgiving golf tournament from being played at the grounds of the Cape Fear Country Club. The sudden drop in temperature and the rain and snow which had fallen rendered the condition of the links very unfavorable and it was decided to postpone the tournament until a more favorable time.

On the whole, the day passed off very quietly and enjoyably. After attending services at the churches in the morning, many of the citizens spent the day quietly in their homes, enjoying a period of rest, broken only by savory feast of roast turkey and the ever-present Thanksgiving trimmin's. Some of the more hardier spirits, not to be outdone by a little cold weather, armed themselves with their trusty fowling pieces, and accompanied by their faithful canine companions, fared forth on the chase. For the most part their luck was not great, though some of the hunters secured good bags of game. However, all of them enjoyed the day's outing and the recreation it afforded.

Most of the business houses and public institutions were closed all day, though many of the stores remained open during the morning. However, these closed during the afternoon and allowed their employes the advantage of at least a half-holiday. The cold weather kept many off the streets and for the most part the downtown portion of the city was almost deserted. However, during the afternoon and evening many came down and took in the moving picture shows.

Quite a number of the faithful went out to league park in the afternoon and saw the Wilmington High School football team win the State championship from the Raleigh High School eleven. The game was an interesting one and was much enjoyed by all who witnessed it. Then, too, many followed the games at Norfolk and Richmond with some interest, and all through the afternoon and evening The Star office was besieged with telephone calls as to the progress or outcome of the games.

The poor were not forgotten yesterday, the Salvation Army distributing about 50 baskets to as many worthy families. In some of the churches contributions of fruit and groceries were received and distributed to persons in need. In many of the churches collections were taken for the denominational orphanages and the congregations responded very liberally in every instance.

The day was marked by practically no disorder and the police officers remarked on the quiet of the holiday. Very little boisterous conduct was noticeable, the day probably being the quietest Thanksgiving in this respect in many years.

BURIAL SERVICE YESTERDAY

Remains of Mrs. D. W. Mason Interred In Bellevue Cemetery.

The burial services over the remains of Mrs. D. W. Mason, whose sad death occurred at Wayeross, Ga., Tuesday night, and whose remains were brought here Wednesday, were held yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Bellevue cemetery, whence the body was carried from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. I. K. Pinner, No. 505 South Second street. The services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, assisted by Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, and were attended by a large number of friends and members of the sorrowing family.

The pallbearers were Messrs. W. A. Robbins, P. A. Bounds, S. L. Smith, C. C. Rice, C. W. Stewart and W. H. Scarborough.

CATCH MINN. EMBEZZLER?

Georgia Authorities Arrest Man Believed to be H. W. Parker.

West Point, Ga., Nov. 28.—At the instigation of Mayor Johnson and detectives a man believed to be H. W. Parker, an official of the Bank of Commerce, Winnebago, Minn., said to be wanted in the Minnesota city for the alleged embezzlement of $50,000 from the bank, was arrested here today.

Parker is said to have disappeared from Winnebago last Spring. The man arrested has been living in West Point since last June under the name of J. M. Long. He recently married a Georgia woman. Long, alias Parker, is being held at the request of the Winnebago police. Local police state that an officer is now en route to West Point from the Minnesota city for the purpose of identifying the prisoner.

SNOW AND RAIN STORM.

Real Winter Swoops Down on North Carolina Coast.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.—Eastern Virginia and the coast of North Carolina experienced their first real blasts of Winter today. A snow storm, accompanied by high winds visited Eastern Virginia, while a severe rain storm raged on the coast of North Carolina. High seas prevailed on the coast, making it hazardous for shipping at sea. The wind reached a velocity of 66 miles an hour at Cape Hatteras and 60 miles an hour at Cape Henry. Norfolk suffered severely from the storm, being practically cut off from communication with the outside world during the early part of the day. The first Thanksgiving snow on record fell at Richmond early today.

WIN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Wilmington High School Defeated Raleigh Eleven Yesterday, and Victory Clinches Coveted Honor—Details of the Game.

Overwhelming the team of the Raleigh High School by the score of 32 to 0, yesterday afternoon at League Park, Wilmington won the High School football championship of the State, Goldsboro, the only other contender for the title, having forfeited its claim by refusing to play a scheduled game with the locals.

The victory of the Wilmington boys was clean-cut, and Mr. Shaw, principal of the High School and coach of the team, stated after the game that he considered the title to the State championship clear.

The Wilmington team collectively and individually gave an exhibition that surprised its most optimistic supporters. One touchdown was scored in each of the first three, and two tallies were added in the last quarter.

Raleigh, which came to this game with the strongest record in the State, failed to make a considerable showing against the local team, at no time threatening to score, and playing on the defensive for the greater part of the time.

Weather conditions were ideal after the rain and snow of the night before. The sun cam out clear several hours before the game, and the largest crowd of many seasons, estimated at 500, was on the side liness. The High School students grouped and gave spirited rooting throughout the game.

Following the game the coach of the Raleigh team stated that his boys were good sports and would take the defeat in good spirit. He stated that he had no complaint to make of the officiating or of the treatment accorded to his team. He refused, however, to concede the championship was still in dispute between Raleigh and Wilmington in view of Wilmington's defeat by Goldsboro and Raleigh's subsequent victory over Goldsboro.

Mr. Shaw, when shown the statement of the Raleigh coach, said that he based his claim after winning from Raleigh today, on Goldsboro's failure to carry out its contract to play two games with the locals. Wilmington suffered its only defeat of the season by the Goldsboro team at a time when the local team was in its poorest form, said Mr. Shaw. Goldsboro was scheduled to play a second game in Wilmington. In a letter calling off the second game Goldsboro waived its claim to consideration for State Championship honors, making the statement that the championship would be decided Thanksgiving in the game between Raleigh and Wilmington. Goldsboro in two games with Raleigh this season tied one, and was defeated in the second game, after having won from Wilmington. This arrangement, Mr. Shaw asserted, gave Raleigh leading claim to the State championship, until the game yesterday afternoon when the uncompromising score piled up by the locals could leave no doubt which team was the better.

With the game yesterday afternoon the Wilmington team closed the most successful season in the history of the local High School. In only one game, that with Goldsboro, was the opposing team able to score, while the locals have piled up more than 170 points against the strongest high school teams of the State.

Captain Charlie Burnett, Who Starred in Yesterday's Game.

On the team that represented Wilmington this season are a number of promising candidates for the All-State High School team. C. Burnett, this year's captain, and R. Burnett, last year's captain, are almost certain choices for their respective positions of right tackle and full-back. They have held their positions for the past two years on the All-State team, and their work this season has been more brilliant than in any other year.

At right end, Monroe, who received honorable mention for the All-State team last season, has rounded into the best High School end in the State. His ability to get down under punts and handle forward passes has been one of the largest contributing factors to Wilmington's splendid success this season. His work in the game yesterday afternoon was of the brilliant variety. Recovering a punt on Raleigh's 8-yard line, he took a forward pass on the next play for a touchdown. At another time he took a forward pass for 20 yards and a touchdown. In breaking up interference and tackling the runner, this player has shown excellent ability.

At center, Wilmington has developed one of the strongest players in the State High Schools for this position. Merriman has been coming all season, and in yesterday's game showed form which entitles him to prominent consideration for the pivotal position on the All-State team. This player was down under every punt, tackling the runner in his tracks. On end runs Merriman got more than his share of tackles. His recovery of a blocked punt payed the way for a touchdown. His passing has been uniformly good.

V. Hall, at quarter, will give Johnson, of Raleigh, a hard run for position on the All-State team, with the odds in favor of the Wilmington man. No quarter in the High School teams has shown the same mastery of the forward pass, nor the same ability in broken field running. Hall is a sharp tackler and a sure defensive man, in addition to having a good head. His generalship in the game yesterday afternoon would have done credit to a seasoned college player.

Coach Shaw, of the local team, gives much credit for the successful season to the strict training observed by the boys. The team has gone through the season without an injury. Mr. Shaw was also enthusiastic in his praise of the work of the scrub team, which by faithful work all season has made possible the "'varsity."

At the close of yesterday's game the Wilmington team gathered and gave a rousing cheer for Mr. Shaw, in recognition of his efficient coaching throughout the season.

Wilmington's brilliant team and individual play is apparent in the following detailed account of the game. For Raleigh, Champion, captain, playing for the most part on the defensive, showed up well. Uzzell, at center, also played a strong game.

First Quarter—Wilmington won the toss and chose to defend the north goal. Play was called at 3:30. Raleigh kicks to Wilmington. Herring returns five yards. Raleigh penalized five yards off-side. Burnett six through line. Williams two through line. Hall three through line. Burnett no gain. Williams punts 30 yards. Johnson returns five yards.

Smith, no gain through line. Mills, two through line. Johnson no gain on end. Mills punts to Burnett, who is tackled in his tracks by Uzzell.

Hall, two through line. Williams, no gain through line. Burnett, twelve through line. Hall six through line. Burnett one through line. Burnett adds another yard. Burnett makes it first down. Burnett fumbles, but recovers. Hall four yards. Burnett adds three yards. Burnett one through line. Burnett no gain. Ball goes over.

Incomplete forward pass, Hall to Burnett. Hall no gain. Burnett tho

CAPE FEAR COUNTRY CLUB TOURNAMENT POSTPONED

On account of the raw weather following the snowstorm and the fact that the putting greens were very soft, the touranment committee called off both the mixed foursome and the men's handicap events scheduled by the Cape Fear Country Club for Thanksgiving day.

Players, who did not hand in cards or who did not announce that they were playing in the handicap match yesterday, may play their rounds (18 holes) on Friday or Saturday; or, if they played nine holes on Thursday, they may play the remaining nine holes either on Friday or Saturday; or entrants, who have not yet played any part of the match, may play 18 holes either on Friday or Saturday; or nine holes on Friday and the remaining nine on Saturday.

All who intend to play in the match must enter their names before starting, with the caddy master.

The mixed foursome will be played on Wednesday, December 4th, play to start on the arrival of the 2:30 car. Handsome cups have been offered for both of these matches.

PRETTY EVENING WEDDING SOLEMNIZED YESTERDAY

Quiet, but withal pretty and impressive, the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Schulken, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Alice M. Schulken, and Mr. J. Floyd Nelson, a well-known insurance man, was solemnized at 6:15 o'clock yesterday evening at the home of the bride's mother, No. 406 North Fourth street, in the presence of only a few friends and relatives of the young people to the marriage vow.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and the home was attractively decorated for the happy event in the lives of the young couple. The bride was attended as maid of honor by Miss Lois A. Newkirk and the groom was attended as best man by his friend, Mr. Grover C. Edge, both of Wilmington. It was a very pretty marriage in every respect. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of grey and carried a large bouquet of chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was pretty in a suit of cream and carried a lovely bouquet of pink carnations. The groom and best man were attired in the conventional black and wore buttonieres of pink carnations.

After the ceremony a brief, informal reception was held at the home during which Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were the recipients of many happy felicitations and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity. They left at once on the northbound Atlantic Coast Line train for Augusta and Birmingham, Ala., where they will spend their honeymoon, going thence to Little Rock, Ark., where they will make their home.

The groom is special canvasser of the American National Insurance Co., of Galveston, Texas, and is well-known in the insurance world and numbers his friends by the score wherever business takes him. The bride is a young woman of many charms of manner and person and is much admired in a wide circle of friends in Wilmington and wherever she is known. Her many friends in Wilmington hope that she will visit this city often and make her visits of long duration.

DURHAM DUPLEX RAZOR

Demonstration at Peck & Holloway's Today and Tomorrow

Miss Gladys Lynch, of Chicago, and Mr. P. R. Argabrite, of West Virginia, have arrived in the city and beginning today will give a two days' demonstration of the famous Durham Duplex razors at the store of Messrs. Peck & Holloway, No. 109 North Front street. These razors in all handles and blades will be on exhibition and Miss Lynch and her assistant will give practical window demonstration of the superiority of this famous device which is warranted to do head barber service on any and every occasion. To advertise the Durham Duplex, Messrs. Peck & Holloway during this demonstration will give to every caller a razor for the actual distributing cost —35 cents. Call at the store today or tomorrow and see the Durham Duplex in action.

Mr. Shaw Wilson's Double

Fayetteville Index: "Durham claims a double of Woodrow Wilson and, while their man, Mr. W. W. Shaw, resembles the President-elect right much, they will have to fatten him up a little, increase his statue and fill out his face just a little to make him the double of President Wilson. Mr. Shaw is a former Wilmington man and is well-known in this section." He is an old school mate of Mr. Wilson and remembers the Wilson family while they were residents of North Carolina."

STRANGE ANIMAL IN KINSTON

First Groundhog In Captivity—Poor Children Are Entertained

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 28.—A strange animal that excited a colored stable boy and was later shot by him, in the woodyard at the home of R. E. Wilkins in Mitchelltown, the fashionable residential section of this city, aroused a great deal of curiosity when exhibited on the streets. The animal proved to be a groundhog, which had lucklessly appeared over two months before schedule time. The marmot was owned by Dr. W. F. Hargrove, a well-known physician of Kinston, and it had escaped from the box in which it was kept and wandered over two blocks from the doctor's home. The groundhog was a gift from a friend of the physician's, and came from the foothills of Virginia, where the species, more properly known as woodchuck, is more numerous than anywhere in the country. It had made a nest under the woodpile at the Wilkins home, and in rambling about the premises in search of food it was encountered by the stableman, with direful consequences to the animal.

That climatic conditions favored the farming community of Lenoir county the past season more than the planters of other counties surrounding this, is evident from a summary of the production of the staples in Carteret and Craven. In the former only about one-half crops were harvested in cotton and tobacco, and only about one-third in corn. Craven farmers made possibly two-thirds of a crop of corn, and about one-half each of cotton and tobacco. Anthracnose conspired with hard rains to damage the cotton in Craven, Carataret, Pamlico, Jones and Duplin, while the pest was rarely evident and the rainfall was almost ideal in Lenoir, resulting in great har vest of each of the three products.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Kinston Woman's Club and the management of the Dixie Theatre entertained the children of the mill workers of the city at a special matinee performance, at which the foramality of selling tickets was dispensed with. Several hundred of the poor children of Kinston comprised the not overly critical but ideal audience before which real performers and moving picture heroes bowed with as much grace as if the occasion had been more elegant.

BRIEF MADE PUBLIC.

Court Asked to Construe Newspaper Law as Constitutional Enactment.

Washington, Nov. 28.—On the theory that Congress intended to pass a constitutional law when it enacted the "newspaper publicity" law last Summer, as a part of the postal appropriation act, Solicitor General Bullitt, in a brief made public today, asked the Supreme Court of the United States to construe the measure into a constitutional enactment. The law will come before the court for consideration Monday.

So long as the laws "are passed in the hasty and unconsidered way that they are," the solicitor general argued in the brief, it was the duty of the court not to adhere to the letter of the enactment and destroy the spirit, but to strive as best it may to give measures a reasonable and effective meaning.

The government asked the court in this instance to construe the law not as an attempt to regulate all newspaper and magazines, but as creating additional conditions on the use of the "second class" mail privileges.

The government's brief argued that while the law itself required "every newspaper" to file statements of editors, owners, hondholders and circulation, under penalty of being "denied the privileges of the mail, yet language in the other portions of the law showed that it made the requirements only of newspapers "entered" at postoffices and the word "entered" was a technical one applying only to second class matter. The right of the government to change the conditions under which mail might be admitted to second class was defended in the brief.

The government brief expressed the most doubt about the constitutionality of the feature of the law which makes an editor or publisher liable to a fine for printing a paid for article without marking it "advertisement."

780-POUND WOMAN DEAD

Justin Masson, Largest Woman In the World, Passes at Montreal

Montreal, Nov. 28.—Justin Masson, who weighed 780 pounds and is said to have been the largest woman in the world, died here today.

Several months ago she became insane and was taken in charge by the Assistance Publique. In the institution she became notorious for exploits of strength when in a frenzy. Even the walls of her room failed to restrain her and it was necessary to build a round house outside the main building and practically jail her.

MAY OVERTHROW OLD ORDER.

Democratic Progressive Senators Would Control Committees.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Control of the important committees of the Senate in the next Congress, when that body will be under Democratic domination, has become a question of pressing importance. The matter is considered so vital to the shaping of legislation and Democratic policies in the new Congress that party leaders now here are discussing it with a view to obtaining immediate action.

It is expected that some form of a Democratic Senate caucus conference will be held next wek to take preliminary steps toward re-organization. The issue has practically taken the form of an ultimatum from the new Democratic Senators, in which number are included many of the most active members of that body, that they must have their share of the important committee places or they will overturn the established order of seniority that has long been the bulwark of "old members' control" in the Senate.

The Senate committees not only exercise a practical control over all legislation of Congress, but they will control no little patronage. The agitation in Democratic ranks has arisen from the fact that a few Democrats long in the Senate hold the ranking positions on practically all the important committees. If the rules of seniority are followed each will be allowed to pick the chairmanship of one of the Senate committees and at the same time hold second position on others.

The important committees are those on finance, appropriations, inter-State commerce, naval affairs, the judiciary, foreign relations, military affairs, rules and agriculture.

Several propositions for a change have been advanced. The most generally accepted of them would give each of the old Senators their choice of one important committeeship, the commanding places on the committees to be yielded then to the newer members.

Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 28.—About one-fourth of New York State will have a "white Thanksgiving." Snow has been falling for 24 hours throughout the northern part of the State. At several points along the St. Lawrence a two-inch fall is reported. Railroads in this district are working snow plows to keep their trains moving and streets traffic hereabouts is badly tied up.

Leslie, Ark., Nov. 28.—Fire today destroyed the plant of the H. G. Williams Cooperage Company, of this city, causing a loss estimated at $300,000. The plant was one of the largest of its kind in the world. The cause of the fire is not known.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 28.—Cecelia Farley, who was acquitted last Saturday of the murder of Alvin E. Zollinger, started yesterday with her mother for Los Angeles, where the girl's parents have been living for two years.

The decadence of the Welsh language is evidenced by the statement that about 85 per cent of the people of Wales know some English, while nearly 50 per cent. speak no other language.

OLD AT 40.

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40 Years.

So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old now," they begin to act old, feel old and they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years.

When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail, build yourself up with our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is a wonderful blood-maker and strengthener.

Mr. J. N. Kelley, aged 75, who lives at Lake Charles, La., says: I took Vinol for a run-down condition; it not only built up my strength, but I feel fifteen years younger than I did before taking it."

Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money. Rob't R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

..Theatrical..

With clever Olive Vail as the prima donna, supported by a classy cast of principals and a singing and dancing beauty chorus, Mort H. Singer's much-talked of musical comedy, "Miss Nobody from Starland" will be the next offering at the Academy Tuesday night, December 3rd. This splendid musical offering is said to have the merit of originality, combined with music that is catchy and comedy that is spontaneous. There are three elaborate scenes, the first showing the main deck of the ocean liner Lusitania, the second the stage of the Princess Theatre in Chicago, and the third a prominent Chicago cafe. The most startling innovation is the production of a musical comedy within a musical comedy, as shown in the famous dress rehearsal scene in the second act, when the audience is literally taken behind the scenes and shown the state secrets of stage craft and management. This scene shows the real stage manager as a despot before whom everybody bows. "That number is for the third act," protests the author. "There isn't going to be a third act," calmly announces the stage manager. "I cut it out yesterday." The stars fight for "lines and laughs," the chorus forgets "business" and the propertyman turns on the rain after the storm is over.

Several new song hits have been introduced, among them, "Hello' Little Sweetheart," "That Dainty Devilsh Rhapsody," "My Pretty Moon," "I Gave My Heart Away Just for a Rose," while the old favorites include, 'I'll Be Your Honey When It's Moonlight" and the whistly melody, "It's Great to Be a General But I'd Rather Lead the Band."

Seats will go on sale Monday at Plummer's.

At The Grand Theatre

Featured by The Grand orchestra's rendition of "That Dramatic Rag," by Young-Ruby and Clogan, the performances at this favorite theatre today will be of special interest and pleasure to all who attend. In addition to the music by the orchestra, Mr. Leonard Chick will sing again that beautiful ballad, "Mother Machree," the big success of Chauncey Olcott. Mr. Chick has received no less than two hundred requests to repeat this great favorite and he will do so with much pleasure today.

In the moveys there will be two big features, an Essanay. "Alkali Ike's Close Shave," and a Kalem, "The Tell-tale Message." The first is another roaring Western comedy feature with Augustus Carney in his world popular character creation. "The Tell-tale Message" is the story of a robbery and the chase of detectives to unravel a rather complicated affair in which two sisters have lost their all. Then in addition to these two there will be a third film and it must be remembered that these are put on with all realistic effects and with full orchestral accompaniment. All roads lead to The Grand which will be found at all times comfortable and cozy, perfectly ventilated and really just one of the most delightful spots in the city.

At The Bijou

Cozy and warm, filled with bright entertainment, merry music and big and good cheer, The Bijou was quite naturally the mecca for amusement lovers yesterday. This popular, handsome theatre celebrated the biggest Thanksgiving in its history, and the audiences were not only whopping in size, but correspondingly immense in appreciation. It was a great day for Wilmingtonians' favorite amusement spot. The solid comfort of The Bijou was, of course, a big drawing card, and no matter how disagreeable the weather it can safely be counted that The Bijou is a place of pure comfort.

Today's Bijou bill is another swell one, and that will appeal in the strongest manner to all folks. A wonderful Kalem film. "Red Wing and the Paleface," heads today's superb offering, and it is the best of all Indian photoplays. A young settler kills Red Fox, an Indian brave, and is later taken a prisoner. Then it is that Red Wing, the Chief's daughter, who loved Red Fox, decided to have revenge. However, the settlers attack the camp, just as the young pioneer is about to be burned at the stake, and rescues him. This is a thrilling spectacle. Red Wing, then in her deep sorrow, visits the grave of her lover and there kills herself. This is said to be the most beautiful and intense scene ever portrayed on a moving picture screen.

Among the other film gems for today is the Biograph's latest, "A Sailor's Heart." It is a merry comedy film, showing that a sailor has a sweetheart in every port. It is a jolly bunch of laughs. It is also decidedly novel and highly interesting, as the scenes of different ports are vividly depicted.

SHOT BY HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Dorothy Puscy Fatally Wounded While Preparing Dinner.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Dorothy Puscy was shot and fatally injured by her divorced husband today as she was preparing a Thanksgiving Day dinner for her five young children. Puscy then failed in an attempt to commit suicide.

Mrs. Puscy was at a delicatessen store near her home when he former husband called. Unaware of his presence she returned with her arms full of dainties for the dinner.

"Are you going to invite me to your dinner?" asked the former husband.

"No, I'm not," replied Mrs. Puscy. "The children are all I want. This is going to be a happy party."

Puscy then drew a revolver and fired three times. One of the bullets struck her in the head. Puscy then turned the revolver on himself. He fired into his neck, but surgeons said the wound would not cause death.

Do you notice that the fellow who is always harping on the "back-to-the-soil" question is generally the one who has no thought of leaving the city?

A CHANDLER LADY TESTIFIES

Makes a Few Plain Statements Regarding Past Troubles, Which Are Very Interesting

Chandler, Okla.—"For six years, I suffered with severe pains in the pit of my stomach, back and sides," writes Mrs. Ella Flowers, from this place. "I tried several different medicines, but did not get any relief.

When I first wrote you for advice, I thought I was past help, but can truthfully say that Cardui, the woman's tonic, relieved me at once. I gained at least 10 pounds, and everybody says I look so much better.

I hardly know how to thank you, for the good that Cardui has done me.

If you think that the publication of this letter will be the means of inducing other suffering women to try Cardui, publish it by all means."

There are thousands of women today, suffering from some form of womanly trouble. Are you of this number? If so, have you tried Cardui, as Mrs. Flowers did? Have you read her symptoms? Do they seem similar to yours? Cardui made her well, as it has made many other ladies well. Why shouldn't it make you well, too? We think it will. Try it.

It is a gentle remedy, prepared from nature's roots and herbs with no bad after-effects.

MAY SUSPEND ORDER

Democrats Oppose Placing of Postmasters Under Civil Service

Washington, Nov. 28.—That an effort will be made to suspend President Taft's executive order of October 15th, whereby about 36,000 fourth-class postmasters were placed under the civil service, became known today when Representative Hull, of Tennessee, said the Democrats in Congress who are already in Washington have conferred informally on the subject and that there was an overwhelming sentiment in favor of having the order revoked.

Representative Hull said that President-elect Wilson, under the civil service law, would have the power to revoke President Taft's order. He cited as a precedent President Harrison's suspension of an order President Cleveland issued January 14th, 1889, whereby the employes in the railway mail service were placed under the civil service law.

He said President Harrison within a week after his inauguration suspended that order.

"Coming at the time and under the circumstances that it did," said Mr. Hull, "this order of the President is patently steeped in the deepest political dye, and constitutes within itself a gross violation of the letter, the spirit and the whole purpose of the civil service law, because it places this immense horde of Republicans—to the exclusion of Democrats—permanently in office without exception or test as to merit of efficiency.

Although Queen Mary disapproves of divorced women, it is evident that King George does not share in this opinion. By his majesty's request the Duchess of Marlborough was invited to Elveden Hall, Lord Iveagh's country place, last week, while the King was there on a shooting trip. The Queen does not accompany him on these visits. Many Americans cordially agree with Queen Mary's pronounced opinion on the subject of "separated wives."—Savannah News.

Round Four.

They came up eagerly and exchanged right uppercuts to the jaw. Ritchie drove the champion against the ropes with snappy blows to the face. The "Wild Cat" retreated to his corner and covered up. Ritchie's round.

Round Five.

A rally to the ropes and closer blocking by both men brought cheers. Wolgast sent right and left to the jaw. A right cross almost sent Ritchie to his haunches. The champion followed this with a right that all but closed the Californian's right eye. Decidedly Wolgast's round.

Round Six.

Wolgast took no chances with the shifty Californian. He kept at a safe distance. Two lefts reached Ritchie's damaged eye. At close range the champion hammered away at the body, landing once in the pit of the stomach with great force. Ritchie's hitting power was deficient. The champion took his corner grinning. Wolgast's round.

Round Seven.

Wolgast rushed in and planted right to jaw. Ritchie winced. Wolgast began to talk to Ritchie. The champion whipped several punches to the jaw and body that all but floored the Californian. Ritchie appeared groggy. Wolgast's round.

Round Eight.

Ritchie came up with a sick smile and the champion sent in short range blows to the face. Wolgast's defense was perfect. Ritchie's blows failed to reach him. Wolgast landed on body and jaw and scampered to his corner. Wolgast's round.

Round Nine.

Ritchie's right eye was closed completely. The champion rushed and chased his man about the ring. He showered rights and lefts to the stomach, Ritchie wincing under the blows. The wonder was that Ritchie weathered the storm. Ritchie landed a hard right swing to the face at the bell. Wolgast's round.

Round Ten.

They fought close together, with Wolgast doing considerable execution. He used short arm blows to the body. Ritchie showed surprising vitality and tilted the champion's head with straight left and right hooks. Wolgast here lost his poise and Ritchie hammered unceasingly with right and left swings to the jaw. The crowd was on its feet. Wolgast went to his corner looking worried. Ritchie's round. His best showing of the fight so far.

Round Eleven.

Ritchie carried the battle to the champion's corner. A vicious rally followed in mid-ring. Wogast swung wildly. Ritchie landed straight right to the jaw. Ritchie was growing stronger, planting solid rights and lefts to the face. Wolgast swung wildly again. Ritchie's round. The champion was slowing up.

Round Twelve.

Wolgast chopped his right to the eye and left to the stomach. Ritchie sent back straight rights to the face. He rushed Wolgast about the ring and drove his right to the stomach. Wolgast landed a hard left on the point of the chin without effect. Round even.

Round Thirteen.

Fighting head to head they exchanged face blows. They did little damage. Wolgast appeared wild. Both seemed strong. Each seemed willing to force the fight. Wolgast rushed Ritchie to the ropes just as the bell ended the round. Round even.

Round Fourteen.

The round opened fiercely. Both men swung wildly. Wolgast sent Ritchie to the ropes with two good rights to the stomach and a left over the closed eye. Ritchie countered with light right to the body. Wolgast sent Ritchie's head back with a left to the nose and almost closed Ritchie's good eye with a hard right. Wolgast's round by a shade.

Round Fifteen.

Ritchie was able to see from one eye only as he came up. He sent a left to Wolgast's stomach and they fought at close range. The referee pried them apart several times in this round. Ritchie landed a volley of lefts to the stomach and outboxed the champion. Wolgast closed the round with a hard drive to the stomach. Wolgast had been given a taste of whiskey during each round's intermission.

Round Sixteen.

Ritchie swung right to the jaw as they met and Wolgast tottered to the ropes. Ritchie sent the champion to the floor with a right swing. Wolgast came up reeling. Again Ritchie shot out and Wolgast was sent against the ropes. Ritchie, however, lacked power to put in a finishing blow. The best Wolgast could do was to close in, stalling all the while, his eyes glazed. With the men locked Wolgast brought his left up from his side and struck Ritchie low. The blow was clearly discernible and the crowd yelled its protest. Referee Griffin grasped Wolgast, saying, "Do that again and I'll disqualify you." He had scarcely finished when Wolgast duplicated the punch again, catching Ritchie below the belt. Griffin stopped the fight and promptly awarded the fight to Ritchie.

PATRICK A FREE MAN

Released From Sing Sing On Receipt Of Pardon

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Albert T. Patrick stepped from Sing Sing prison a free man at 4:35 o'clock this afternoon. His pardon, signed by Governor Dix, reached Warden Kennedy a few minutes before. As he entered an automobile waiting to take him to his home in New York, he said:

"I am going to continue the fight to vindicate my name."

NEARLY COMPLETES CASE.

Government Will Soon Conclude Evidence Against "Dynamiters."

Indianapolis, Nov. 28.—The government has almost completed its presentation of testimony at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial.

District Attorney Miller announced today the government would close its case tomorrow or Saturday. Then the defense will begin offering testimony in denial of the charges that the 45 men on trial aided in the McNamara dynamite plots by illegal transporting of explosives on passenger trains.

Mr. Miller also served notice that tomorrow he would insist on a prompt enforcement of the court's ruling that the bonds of 14 of the defendants are invalid because they are indemnified. Mr. Miller said some further question would be raised also as to the bonds of Frank M. Ryan and John T. Butler, president and vice president, respectively of the Iron Workers.

Telling of an explosion at North Randall, Ohio, on March 25th, 1911, when $50,000 damage was done to an ore conveyor by nitro-glycerine, Edward Cale today testified he heard the noise in his store a half mile away that night and with a lantern and a revolver he ran down the road. On the way, he said, he met a man running away from the explosion. Asked if the man was in the court room, Cole pointed at George Anderson Cleveland, saying: "He's the man."

Seven persons were named by Robert G. M. Ross as having known of a plot to blow up buildings in construction in Detorit in 1910. Ross, now employed as a mechanic by the government in Hawaii, testified Hiram Cline, of the Carpenters' Union, had confided to him that $100 had been paid to Charles Wachtmeister, of the Iron Workers' Union, "as the Carpenters' share of the expense of the explosions."

The witness said the explosions did not occur, "because Wachtmeister talked too much." Later, he said, Frank J. Murphy, Clarence E. Dowd, W. K. Benson and Spurgeon P. Meadows, all indicted union officials, were present when the money paid to Wachtmeister was discussed. When objection was made to the mention of L. A. Noel, financial secretary of an Iron Workers' Union, the court allowed the testimony to be offered on the representation by the district attorney that it had been shown "Noel was a co-conspirator."

Ross said he had been called to a meeting of union officials and accused by them of being employed as a spy by non-union builders and that "the brothers wanted to take radical action." Ross said he denied the charge, but warned them the proposed explosions "would make a big noise."

NIGHT RIDERS AT WORK

Tobacco Growers Investigate Burning Of $20,000 Worth of the Weed

Bainbridge, Ga., Nov. 28.—Investigation was instituted here today at a meeting of several prominent tobacco growers, of the burning of $20,000 worth of tobacco in Decatur county last Tuesday by night riders. Three large barns were totally destroyed by fire in the Georgia county and two barns of tobacco were consumed by fire across the Florida State line, 20 miles distant. The loss sustained in the latter State is not known.

All of the tobacco barns destroyed were owned by members of an association formed three years ago by large growers to hold the tobacco until a suitable price was offered for it by manufacturers.

At the meeting today it was said the tobacco growers hostile to the association were responsible for the alleged incendiary fires. At the time the barns were destroyed watchmen were stationed in the vicinity. Since the fires no watchman has been seen.

Evidence showing that all of the barns were destroyed by a mounted body of night riders is said to have been found and detectives are now working on the case. All tobacco barns in this vicinity are heavily guarded.

OUTPLAYED BUT WON.

Alabama Defeats Tennessee in Pretty Contest, 7 to 0.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 28.—Although outplayed throughout the entire contest, the University of Alabama football team fought their way to victory over the University of Tennessee squad on Rickwood Field here this afternoon by a score of 7 to 0.

Rushing the ball at all stages of the game, the Tennesseeans were three times under the shadow of the Crimson goal line, but on each occasion failed to cross it.

Albama threatened only once during the contest and on this occasion scored the only touchdown of the game, A. B. Vandegraffe going 25 yards over tackle for the score. Moody kicked goal.

REBELS DEFEATED.

Mexican Federals Celebrate Thanksgiving With Victory.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving, usually observed in Mexico, was celebrated today in Juarez on reports of a rebel defeat at Guzman and on the arrival of two pieces of artillery and 100 reinforcements from Chihuahua.

Among the 25 rebels killed in the Guzman attack was Major O. Cano, a rebel leader of some prominence. His body with the 12 Federals wounded, will arrive late today at Juarez. The Federal loss was eight killed, according to today's report.

Two members of this class, Thomas C. Ellers and Eugene E. Barnetts, having passed the examination of character, but not having passed the committee of examination, were continued in the class of the second year.

Mr. Barnette, while a member of this conference, is a missionary in China. No word having been received from him regarding his failure to pass his examination, his presiding elder was instructed to write to him and urge him to make full preparation to pass this examination during the coming year.

The following undergraduates having passed the examination of character and having passed the committee of examination for the third year were advanced to the class of the fourth year: Frank Culbreth, George H. Biggs, Robert L. Carraway, Thomas M. Grant, Cornelius B. Culbreth, Walter Patten, George S. Bearden and George M. Daniels.

Two members of this class, Marcus W. Dargam and Clarence R. Canipe, having passed the examination of character but not having passed the committee of examination, were continued in the class of the third year. Three members of the class of the third year have completed the course of study in both the second and third year since the conference a year ago—George S. Bearden, Walter Patten and J. M. Daniels.

Bishop Denny called next, Question 14, "What traveling preachers are elected elders?" The following having passed exemaination of character and committe of examination of the fourth year, which is the last year in the course of study were elected elders: Hicks E. Lance, Walter A. Stanbury, William J. Watson, Thurman G. Vickers, Junius A. Martin, Marvin Y. Self, James Joshua Boone, Franklin S. Love, Neill M. McDonald and Robert D. Daniel.

Question 1 was next called: "Who are admitted on trial?" Answering this question the roll of districts was called and the following, after having passed the examining committee on admission, were admitted on trial: Baxter Boone Slaughter and Harry Cleveland Smith, Durham district; Thomas Milton Lee, Julian Leonard Midgett and James Hernert Miller, Elizabeth City district; Nathan Martin Wright and George Washington Perry, Fayetteville district; Frank David Dood, Frank C. Fulcher and William B. Humble, Newbern district; Edwin Lee Jones, Rockingham district; Robert Nicholson Smith, Warrenton district.

All the candidates admitted on trial were recommended by their respective presiding elders.

Report of Methodist Orphanage.

Rev. John N. Cole, superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh, submitted his annual report, which showed that at present there are 150 children in the orphanage, 30 of whom have been admitted the past year and 10 having gone out from the institution. The report showed further that admission had been denied to 150 children who desired to enter the orphanage because of lack of room. The largest gift in money received by the orphanage the past year was $10,000 from a woman in Kinston. Another valued gift came in the form of money to furnish the library. It requires $98 per year to support a child in the orphanage. Another item of the report showed that the children in the orphanage are being trained carefully in manual labor as well as in intellectual work; that the boys are being taught to manage the work of the farm and the girls are receiving that training in housekeeping which will prepares them for the duties of life in the homes to which they go when they leave the orphanage.

Friday's Programme.

Bishop Denny announced that the order of the day for 10:30 o'clock Friday morning would be the reception of the class into full connection. He said in this connection that he desired to call the attention of the conference to the law of the church which he could not now say is the custom of the church, but which should be the custom now as in the early days of her history, namely, the requirement for fasting or at least abstinence and prayer upon the part of the conference on the day when the class is to be received into full connection. He said also that he would be glad to see the church return to the custom of the fathers of the church in the observance of this law.

Before propounding the disciplinary questions to the class to be received into full connection tomorrow Bishop Denny will deliver an address to the class and to the conference upon the subject of the importance of this occasion. This address is anticipated as one of the most interesting features of the conference session.

Perhaps Greenville Next.

This afternoon H. E. Spence, a member of the conference and a member of the faculty of Trinity College, preached in Hay Street church to a large congregation.

The anniversary of the conference board of Church Extension was held this evening, several speakers being heard in that interest.

The pastor and congregation of the Jarvis Memorial church, Greenville, desire the conference session of next year to be held in that church. Special effort will be made to get the conference to make that selection. That church is named in honor of ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, whose home is in Greenville, and no layman in the Conference is more actively interested in the work of the entire conference than he, and no layman is more highly esteemed, and it is not improbable that Greenville will be selected for the place of meeting next year.

New Britain, Conn., Nov. 28.—Louis Saxon early today walked into a confectionery store where his young wife was employed as a clerk, asked for a drink of soda and, without warning, fired at her twice with a revolver, killing her instantly. After the shooting Saxon folded his arms and calmly awaited arrest. Jealousy is said to have been the cause.

CROSS OUTPOINTS NELSON

Gets Decision Over "Battler" In a 10-Round Bout

New York, Nov. 28.—Leach Cross outpointed Battling Nelson in a 10-round bout here today. Nelson took a great deal of punishment, but was forcing the fighting at the finish. Cross weighed 138 pounds at the ringside and Nelson was four ounces heavier.

Cross started in with left jabs to the face and right and left hooks to the head. The "Battler," was outclassed but managed to land hard on the jaw right and left and had Cross crouching at the end of the initial round.

It was all Cross' in the next round, with hooks and uppercuts, but Nelson sent in a straight left which discolored Cross' right eye. Nelson took a lot of punishment in the next two rounds, but surprised every one, Cross in particularly, by boring right in for the body with weak blows which did no damage. These terrific left hooks to the jaw shook Nelson in the fourth session, but he was game and refused to back away.

Nelson bled from the nose and mouth in the fifth and was wild in his swings, but the pace was telling on Cross, while Nelson did not show any signs of weariness. At the end of the seventh round he was forcing Cross all over the ring. A right upper-cut and a right and left swing dazed Nelson in the eighth.

Nelson got to Cross' body in the ninth, but took a score of hooks on the head and a hard right on the jaw in return. The Dane tried to get in a good punch, but fell short and his left caught the referee, "Young" Corbet, on the ear. Nelson's willingness against sure defeat was remarkable and he actually made Cross back up, forcing him from corner to corner until the final bell.

PATRICK HOME AGAIN.

Released From Sing Sing Spends Thanksgiving at Home.

New York, Nov. 28.—Albert J. Patrick, thrice on the verge of death in the electric chair and a life prisoner in Sing Sing for the murder of William Marsh Rice, ate his Thanksgiving dinner at home in New York tonight, a free man. Pardoned yesterday by Governor Dix he was released from prison this afternoon and less than two hours later was within the welcoming arms of his wife at their home on Clermont avenue.

"I expect always to continue my fight for vindication and to clear my name," he announced just before leaving the sombre walls of the prison behind him.

"I will make a statement later," he added.

Patrick's wife waited for him in New York. At the prison door with an automobile, waited a man who has been working for the prisoner's release for one year. He was Thomas Maher, of Peekskill, N. Y., former cell mate of Patrick, a forger, pardoned a year ago.

During his incarceration he and Patrick become close friends.

Cheers from a crowd of sevral hundred persons greeted the pardoned lawyer when the automobile drew up in front of his home in New York. But the greeting passed unnoticed by Patrick. On the threshold stood his wife. Her one word of welcome was "Al."

Ten years ago on the eve of the day when Patrick was sentenced to die, the pair were married in the Tombs. The woman, as she uttered the single exclamation, stretched out her arms and her husband was soon in her embrace. Then the door closed behind them and Patrick was home again.

FOUR KILLED, 50 HURT

Cincinnatti Express On Pennsylvania Railroad Derailed—Broken Rail

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—Four men were killed and more than 50 persons were injured on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Glenloch, 25 miles west of here last midnight, when the Cincinnatti Express was derailed, eight cars going down a high embankment. The dead: L. D. Fittley, a passenger, Pittsburg; J. A. Baldwin, Brooklyn, sleeping car employe; E. R. Jones, New York, sleeping car employe; unidentified man.

The body was clad only in night clothes and there is no means of identifying it. The face is badly disfigured.

The heavy train, known as the Cincinnatti Express, was hauled by two locomotives. It is the belief of road officials that a broken rail was responsible for the wreck.

Passengers in the cars that had remained on the roadbed hurried to help persons caught in the plunge of the other coaches. The injured were cared for in nearby farm houses until the arrival of relief trains, which were loaded and then hurried back to West Chester or Harrisburg.

TYPHOON IN PHILIPPINES.

Many Lives Lost and Much Property Damaged—Town Destroyed.

Manila, P. I., Nov. 28.—Many lives were lost during a severe typhoon which occurred today. Immense property damage was reported.

The storm crossed the islands of Samar, Leyte and North Panay, leaving ruin in its path. The town of Tacloban, the capital of Leyte, was practically destroyed. Two steamers were wrecked in Tacloban harbor.

How many persons were killed by falling houses, flying debris and by drowning is not known, but the loss of life is reported to have been great and the damage is estimated at several million pesos.

Another typhoon of unusual severity is predicted by the weather bureau along the west coast of Mindanao.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. WOULD BRING LHE POWERS TOGETHER

flict is raised ip acute form between Austria and Servia and it remains to be seen whether the Austrian government will take any direct action or will be content to leave the question for after-war settlement.

The Servian action, coupled with the warlike feeling prevailing at Vienna, is likely to keep Europe in a state of anxiety. On the other hand, the fact that the negotiations are progressing at Baghtche and that there is no sign of the resumption of operations on the Tchataija lines, while the great powers are exchanging proposals for the assembling of a European conference, all make for a peaceful settlement.

Should the proposed conference materialize—for apparently Austria has not yet consented to participate—it would be considered as preparatory to a later conference, which would include the Balkan States and Turkey for a final settlement of all questions. Nothing as to where the conference will take place has been given out. Great secrecy is preserved regarding the conference at Baghtche and it is not known whether the plenipotentiaries are discussing an armistice or peace.

It is reported from Rome that a provisional Albanian government has been constituted at Vatona (Avlona) by 80 Albanian delegates.

SCARCITY OF MATERIALS

Brick and Cement Famine In Newbern —A Tiger—Street Cars

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 28.—One of the gravest problems that local contractors and builders are having to contend with just at this time is the scarcity of brick and cement, as there is much building going on in Newbern and vicinity and the condition is growing alarming. The majority of the brick used here are made within a radius of 25 miles of the city and owing to the scarcity of freight cars the manufacturers say that they are unable to make shipments on time. The same conditions prevail with the cement manufacturers. Then too, the price of both these materials has increased considerably. Brick have increased $1 on the thousand during the past four months and the price of cement has also gone up. In addition to this labor is scarce and the contractors are making no promises to erect buildings by any specified date.

The local police made an important capture yesterday afternoon when they placed Oscar Croom, a colored shoemaker, whose place of business is on Broad street, under arrest on a warrant charging him with retailing spirituous liquors. The authorities have suspected for a long while that Croom was engaged in the operation of a "tiger" and have kept a strict watch on his place with the above mentioned result.

A force of workmen today began to remodel and put into condition the building on Pollock street which will be occupied temporarily by the new Citizens' Savings and Trust Company. The new bank will open December 15th. They have purchased a valuable lot on Middle street and will erect a commodious brick home on the site in the near future.

A telegram received here today by the local managers of the Newbern Ghent Street Railway Company, stated that the cars to be used on the new line recently constructed in this city had been shipped and should arrive in this city by the end of the week. The big power plant which will furnish the power for the system has just been completed and is said to be one of the most complete of its kind in the South. Cars will doubtless be in operation by the latter part of next week.

ELECTION FRAUDS

Tennessee Voters Received Bank Notes With Literature

Bristol, Tenn., Nov. 28.—Numerous voters received $10 bank notes with campaign literature through the mail just before the recent election, according to a report of the special grand jury empannelled by Judge Skeen at Big Stone Gap, Va., to investigate alleged election frauds. The grand jury also reported that several voters received shipments of whiskey on election eve which they had not ordered. No indictments were returned, however, as the grand jury was unable to ascertain who mailed the money.

It is said that an investigation of the sending of money to voters through the mails probably will be instituted soon.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

JAMES GORDON DEAD

Former Noted U. S. Senator Passes at Mississippi Home

Okolona, Miss., Nov. 28.—After an illness extending over several weeks, former United States Senator James Gordon, aged 79, died early today.

The funeral will take place Friday morning.

His death was due to the infirmities of old age.

Senator Gordon became prominent in the Senate when he delivered the famous "Good Will" speech immediately after his appointment to fill the unexpired term caused by the death of Senator A. J. McLaurin. He was appointed to the Senatorship December 27th, 1909, and served until February 22nd, 1910. In that short time he attracted National attention by his quaint utterances and his unbounded optimism.

Senator Gordon served throughout the War Between the States as a captain in the Confederate Army. He was a successful cotton planter, an author and poet. His poems and other articles have appeared in many prominent publications throughout the country.

Senator Gordon was born in December, 1833, and until a few months before his death had been in excellent health.

AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

W. Va. Miners' Sentences Will Be Taken to Higher Court

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 28.—The right of the Governor to declare martial law and thereby create a military commission with power to impose sentence on offenders found guilty, will be questioned before the Supreme Court of Appeals of this State next Tuesday on application of a writ of habeas corpus. The latter is filed by attorneys of H. F. France and L. A. Mays, recently sentenced by the military court to five years in the penitentiary for a series of alleged offenses during the mine troubles in this section. It is maintained upon constitutional grounds that the military court had no authority to impose the sentences.

New York, Nov. 28.—Playing "movie actors" at their home last night, William McBride, 15 years old, son of a wealthy marble dealer, shot and fatally wounded his brother Louis, aged 12. Both boys were armed, William with a revolver and Louis with an air rifle. Their father attributed the accident to his son's attempt to re-enact scenes on moving picture films.
